of heaven.

ALLELUIA!

18th. SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading – Ecclesiastes 1:2; 2:21-23: "For what profit comes to man from all the toil and anxiety of heart with which he has labored under the sun?"

Responsorial Psalm – Psalm 90: "If today you hear his voice, harden not your hearts."

Second Reading – Colossians 3:1-5, 9-1: "Think of what is above, not of what is on earth. For you have died, and your life is hidden with Christ in God."

Gospel – Luke 12:13-21: "You fool, this night your life will be demanded of you; and the things you have prepared, to whom will they belong?"

The readings for the 18th Sunday in Ordinary Time Year C are a warning against becoming too attached to worldly goods and temporary pleasures. In the first reading we are warned that the things of this world will not bring us lasting joy. The psalm reminds us that our days here are numbered. In the second reading we are reminded to focus on our spiritual lives. In the gospel Jesus tells the parable of the Rich Fool who put all of his energy into acquiring wealth and then suddenly died.

*Think of what is above,
not of what is on earth.*

Colossians 3:12

young-catholics.com

It makes no sense to accumulate if one day we will die. What we must accumulate is love, and the ability to share, the ability not to remain indifferent when faced with the needs of others.

If you were raised with Christ, seek what is above, where Christ is seated at the right hand of God. Think of what is above, not of what is on earth.

Pope Francis

Our church home needs attention. The Altar of our beloved Lord and Savior is dusty and needs regular cleaning as does the rest of the church. To address this, we will be opening the church on Saturday mornings at 10:00 a.m. and request that volunteers from our church family come in to do some cleaning.

We are blessed to have a large church so several volunteers will be needed. THANK YOU in advance for your help.
