Last Week's Run Report

Run 678 – Location – NAVAL BASE.
Hare – SLUSHBOX.

Twas the night before "Austraya Day" and all round the shack not a creature was stirring...not even the pack !

Well, it had been a very hot day and as Freo and SOP Hashers arrived at this idyllic spot, beverages were needed to keep cool and stay in the shade. Once the circle was called, the Hare Slushbox gave some clear yet convoluted directions for runners and walkers who were excited to hear there was a drinks stop but perturbed that there were unexploded incendiary devices, snakes and drop-bears on trail ! On-On went the cry and you could hear the pounding of feet all around the village (with some strange stares from the locals !) The trail headed into local bushland, part of the Beeliar Regional Park (stop Roe 8 !!!) The runners and walkers converged at the spectacular drinks stop (so high that nose bleeds were possible...) and demolished all the splash.

On return, more splash was consumed and an amazing sunset viewed (marred only by Harriers with little attire venturing into the sea...)

Back to business, Cookie called the circle and various badges were awarded and the hare's efforts were rewarded with a 9.9 (?) from the walkers and a 1 from runners (what would they know...SOP runner rated it) It was a long run apparently with not enough checks but well marked.

On to the RA who managed to mistake one fat bastard, chrome domed SOP runner for another, which caused a bit of mirth and consternation but nevertheless once another Freo Hasher was added to the line-up it was clear that they all looked the same ! Anyway one of them was charged for short-cutting.

Other charges were administered, rightly or wrongly for sitting or talking or simply breathing as the circle disintegrated into a rowdy (sorry Rowdy !) mess. Once order was restored, what could have been a further round of charges was cut short as the nosh was ready. So after a few jokers had had their say, we finished off with the Freo Hash song and it was one of the better renditions of it this time. Oh, and SOP had their song too but we were busy having a great meal by then. Thanks Slushy for managing to feed the lot of us !
