CHRIS CHRISTIE
GOVERNOR

October 30, 2010

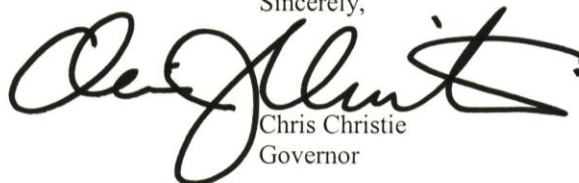

Dear Friends:

On behalf of the State of New Jersey, I am pleased to extend warm greetings to all those attending the Alliance for Cultural and Educational Services Inc. (ACES) Youth Achievement Awards Night.

I am proud to be Governor of one of the most diverse states in the Nation. New Jersey's thriving Philippine-American community contributes significantly to our State's prosperity and vibrant cultural diversity. I commend ACES for sponsoring cultural exchanges and programs that continue to enrich the people of our great State and strengthen the partnership and collaboration between various organizations. Tonight's program highlights the success achieved when investing in our young people. Sparking the interest of today's youth and encouraging them to approach their academics, cultural studies and community programs with enthusiasm and creativity is a monumental achievement and the success of tonight's honorees stand as a testament to their parents and all those who have helped shepherd them to this recognition. I know you share my admiration for this Year's Youth Achievement Awardees and applaud the programs and persons that have helped them achieve this honor.

Congratulations to the awardees and best wishes for an enjoyable and memorable event.

Sincerely,

Chris Christie
Governor

ACESAlliance for Cultural and Educational ServicesKONSULADO PANLAHAT NG PILIPINAS*CONSULATE GENERAL OF THE PHILIPPINES*NEW YORK*MESSAGE

I am pleased to extend my warm greetings to the Alliance for Cultural and Educational Services, Inc. (ACES) headed by its President Ms. Victoria M. Rey. Congratulations to the new officers who will be inducted tonight.

I recognize and congratulate too the 2010 Outstanding Youth who will be given their well-deserved recognition tonight. Like your parents, we are all proud of you. We hope that you will be able to face all obstacles as you pursue your dreams and put to maximum use your God-given talents.

It is indeed worth noting that ACES has survived many challenging years from the time of its establishment in 2004. I recognize the great efforts taken to achieve the objectives and mission of ACES and its special interest in education. Tonight, may the remembrance of how you faced the challenging years, of how you achieved your project goals to benefit the youth, of how you formed the many social relationships within the organization and outside of it and of how you developed the great cooperative spirit among all of you – may all these push you all the more to greater heights and serve as a testimony that –yes – you can achieve more together and you can do much to help our youth.

Continue then the good work of providing an educational resource for our young Filipino Americans, and of imparting to them the importance of understanding our cultural heritage, and the values which identify the Filipino. May there be more ACES in our community!

Mabuhay kayong lahat !

I commend the officers and members of the Alliance for Cultural and Educational Services (ACES) for their commitment in accomplishing the projects for the youth in the Philippines and in the United States. Projects include providing school supplies and sponsoring scout membership to deserving students in the Philippines and sharing expertise with educators. In partnership or collaboration with other organizations, ACES holds the Iskrelahang Muntisa New Jersey, a Saturday program where children learn Philippine music, dances, Conversational Filipino, and arts and crafts; painting contests; story telling; and other educational and cultural activities.

This year, ACES recognizes the talents and accomplishments of the youth in academics, sports, community service, performing arts, and student leadership. This recognition of their exemplary achievement is well deserved. May this award greatly inspire them to continue strive for excellence in their endeavors

Welcome to the Alliance for Cultural and Education Services (ACES) 2010 Youth Achievement Award Gala Night. Tonight, ACES honors the fifteen Filipino-American Youth who have shown outstanding accomplishments in academics, performing arts, community services and student leadership.

The Philippine National Hero, Dr. Jose Rizal, once said “Ang Kabataan ang Pag-asa ng Bayan.”

This is what we all believe, we were once your age and had aspirations to fulfill our ambitions and at the same time help towards the betterment of the community and people surrounding us.

We want to pass on to you our genuine heartfelt greetings and congratulations for at a young age you have made a name for yourself. Our future is in your hands and we pray that God will guide all of you in all your dreams and endeavors.

PROJECTS AND ACTIVITIES

The Alliance for Cultural and Educational Service, Inc. (ACES) provides projects for the youth as well as adults in the United States. ACES recognizes the outstanding achievements of Filipino American youth in academic excellence, arts, literary, student leadership, sports and community leadership through the biennial Youth Achievement Award. It also offers scholarships, provides school supplies and sponsors scout membership to deserving students in the Philippines and shares expertise with educators. In partnership or collaboration with other organizations, ACES holds the Iskwelahang Munti sa New Jersey, a Saturday program where children learn Philippine music, dances, Conversational Filipino, and arts and crafts; painting contests; story telling; and other educational and cultural activities. It also offers seminar workshops or information dissemination relating to passing the teacher examination for licensing and successful teaching in the United States.

Dance

Masters of Ceremonies: Roger Lipon and Lisa Arnaldo

Chelsea shares her gift in dancing by teaching Philippine, Hawaiian and Polynesian dances to young members of the Filipino-American Association of Western Connecticut. She also performs these dances at various functions of several associations in the tri-state area to promote cultural awareness.

As an outstanding student and community leader, Chelsea represents Immaculate High School at various events and other activities inside and outside of school. She speaks at local schools and parishes about Immaculate High School and assists in the enrollment of students. She has been entrusted to represent her class to the student council, to be the student council president and member of the student executive board.

Chelsea is a consistent honor student at Immaculate High School in Connecticut. She is a recipient of the Presidential Volunteer Service Award, Hugh O'Brian Youth Leadership Award, National Federation of Filipino-American Associations CT Youth Leadership Award, Knights of Columbus Catholic High School Education Award, Catholic War Veterans Citizenship Award, Secretary of the State's Excellence in Citizenship Award and other meritorious honors. At present, she is a member of the National Honor Society and attends Immaculate High School.

Chelsea

Joseph Anthony Cornelio Jr.

The son of Jess and Cynthia, Joseph has one brother, Jason. They are lifelong residents of Jersey City. Joseph has been an honor student throughout all his academic years at Our Lady of Victories School. Joseph is currently an eighth grade student St. Aloysius Elementary School. He excels in Mathematics, Social Studies and Sciences.

After finishing his studies at St. Aloysius, Joseph will be attending McNair Academic High. Joseph starts in Track and Field in St. Al's and will be expanding his resume to include baseball this spring. Joseph likes to go fishing with his Dad, brother and his uncles. He loves playing the piano, and has performed in numerous recitals. He attended the Hoboken School of Music, with concentration on the piano.

Riana has demonstrated excellence in music, student leadership, community leadership, and academics. She won first prize in the Filipino Idol Competition in Jersey City, first prize in the Maharajah Idol Vocal Competition and other singing competitions. She has performed at many gatherings and concerts for different causes.

As an outstanding student, Riana has won in the NCJLT Japanese Speech Contest, New Jersey Science League, National Science League, Poetry Out Loud: National Poetry Recitation Contest, and Japanese Recitation Contest. She made it to the Top 10% in New Jersey for Biology II and won 1st Place in the school-wide Biology contest. She became the President of Key Club, Junior Executive Officer, Vice President, PHAT Club (Protecting Habitats, Animals, and Trees), Secretary, Student Council, Homeroom Representative to the New Jersey Science League Competition, and assumed vital roles in several school and community projects.

Riana graduated from the Hudson County Schools of Technology. There, she got accepted in the prestigious National Honor Society and Japanese Honor Society. She is included in the Who's Who in Biology and Foreign Language, an honor accorded to high school valedictorian or salutatorian. On the SAT, she got a total score of 2120. At present, she studies at Harvard University.

Riana

Jesica
Bolandrina

Jessica is a published author in the highly popular Chicken Soup for the Child's Soul and the Teen Ink Literary Magazine. She has also published Manikang Papel in Manila Philippines.

Her passion for music is clearly evident when Jessica plays the traditional Filipino folk songs on the banduria. As a co-instructor of the Rondalla, she assists teachers during class and provides input on annual curriculum and course selection. She also performs traditional Philippine folk dances.

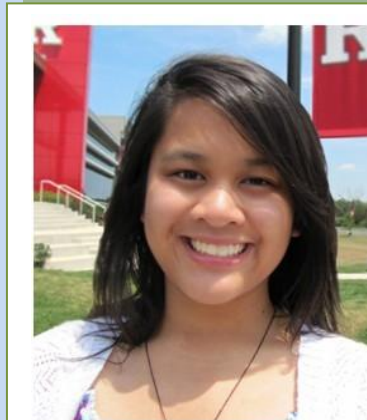

Jessica graduated with High Honors at Douglas High School in Massachusetts. Due to her outstanding performance in academics, exemplary community service, remarkable student leadership, and great creative writing skills, she has received the Community Service Award, the John and Abigail Adams Scholarship, History Award, 2008 Top Scorer, Spirit Award, Dean's scholarship, and other worthy commendations. At present, Jessica is pursuing a degree in Journalism at Northeastern University, Boston, Massachusetts.

Through the Key Club organization, Angeline had demonstrated her exemplary performance in student leadership when she became the Read & Lead Coordinator at Grandview Elementary School, in October 2002 – June 2006. She supervised a group of fellow high school students in reading to elementary school children, typically in the first grade level.

As a peer educator, at Rutgers University, Angeline obtains popular opinion in regards to HIV/AIDS, spreads awareness and addresses misconceptions about HIV/AIDS. She also facilitates events throughout the Rutgers community about making informed and responsible decisions concerning alcohol, drugs, nicotine, and sexual contact.

Angeline is a recipient of so many awards that include the NJ district Golden Member Award, Most Active Junior, Most Service Hours for a Freshman, First Place Traditional Scrapbook, United States Achievement Academy National Award, English Merit Award, History Merit Award, President's Education Award Program, Outstanding Academic Excellence, Optimist Award, Excellence in Leadership Award and other commendations.

Angeline
Villaluz Danan

Cheryline Valerie
Villaluz Danan

In recognition of her consistent excellence in the areas of scholarship, leadership, service, and character, Cheryline has been inducted into the National Honor Society. She also received the New Jersey Student Tuition Assistance Rewards Scholarship that provides full community college tuition and fees.

She has received several awards and commendations for having shown remarkable involvement and achievements in school and community projects and activities that include cheer leading, bowling, playing the piano, dancing, varsity, tennis, drawing, food drives and other activities.

These past few years, she fell in love with children. This has strengthened her dream to become a pediatrician. She looks forward to helping someone who is in pain or is sick. She will do her best to fulfill her dream.

A multi-awardee in the field of the performing arts, Golda was raised in an atmosphere of music by parents Dr. Bernie and Sally dela Merced of Bloomfield, NJ. She studied at The Philippine Center for Pop Music in Quezon City, Philippines where she learned the rudiments of performing live. She graduated with the degree of Mass Communication, Major in Broadcasting from California State University in Long Beach, California. Currently, she is the female vocalist of “The Golden Band.”

Golda’s popularity in the tri-state area catapulted in 2000 when she won First Place in the PIDC-Philippine Consulate of NY- sponsored Youth Festival Solo Singing Contest. Since then, she started singing for charities aside from performing at the Philippine Independence Day Celebrations in New York, Jersey City, and Passaic, NJ. She has become a permanent fixture at the PIDCI (Philippine Independence Day Council, Inc) Cultural and Entertainment, PDOC (Philippine Day Organizing Council), as well as the Philippine Fiesta.

Gifted with a soulful voice and a singing style uniquely her own, Golda has released two CD’s: “Sa Ngalan Ng Ama At Ng Anak”, a compilation of revival songs, and “GOLDA...Unravel,” with original songs written by award-winning Filipino composers Vehnee Saturno and Jimmy Borja. She has performed in Philippine TV Channels, radio stations, shows, and concerts and had the rarest opportunity to share the spotlight with several top performers and actors like Pilita Corrales, Jose Mari Chan, Jun Polistico, Anthony Castelo, David Pomeranz, Sam Milby, Pokwang, Piolo Pascual and other celebrities.

At present, she is completing her residency in Hartford, Connecticut.

Donna Chelle V. Morales, D.O.

Alexandra Alison Prendergast

Alexandra's passion for science, art, nature, weather, astronomy, biology, chemistry, literacy, language, culinary arts, theater and performing arts is very much manifested in her achievements and involvement in several activities and projects in school and in the community. She has been elected to various capacities in the student council and has been chosen to lead in important school undertakings.

The various awards that Alexandra had received included Annual Science Award from the American University of Women, Presidential Gold Award for Outstanding Academic Excellence, Science Award, Young Author's Award, Band & Special Chorus, Summit Award for Gifted & Talented, 2010 Student of the Year Award, 2010 Kohl's Kids Who Care Scholarship Program Store Level Winner, and others.

Although Alexandra is a 6th grader at Rogers Park Middle School, she is very much committed in showcasing her talents in singing, dancing, and acting in order to support different worthy organizations and associations in New York and Connecticut.

ACES Alliance for Cultural and Educational Services

Jack has won several awards in swimming and other related fields. These include High School Most Valuable Player, League MVP, New England Prep School MVP, All America Swimming Athlete, USA Swimming Scholar Athlete, Connecticut Swimming Scholar Athlete and other notable awards. He also won the Best Architecture Best Student. He received travel grants to join a school expedition Antarctica and a trip to Russia.

Due to his outstanding leadership skills, Jack has become the captain of two varsity and one junior varsity sport teams, assistant coach, Dormitory Proctor, head of the Meditation Club, head of Gospel Choir, and stage lighting manager. His acting ability has given him a chance to play a major role in a school play. He has been a performer of folk dancing at various fundraisers, folk dancing instructor to the younger members, and a writer for special occasion activities

John A. Pretto Jr.

Francesca
Velasco

Francesca's peers and teachers noticed her strong student leadership. In 2009 – 2010, she served as the student council president. She was one of the chosen few that attended the People to People Leadership Program in 2007. At present, she is also a member of the CFC Youth in Jersey City.

Aside from outstanding student leadership, Francesca also demonstrates keen interest in Music. She won second place in the Piano Recital in 2009. In addition, she shows a love for swimming. At present, she is a member of the swimming recreational team.

Francesca is a consistent honor student at Our Lady of Czestochova (OLC) School in Jersey City. Her exemplary scholastic performance qualifies her to become a member of the National Junior Honor Society. She won first place in the OLC School Science Fair in 2010

Felisa excels in academics, school leadership, swimming, and community service. She has never been absent in class from 5th to 8th grade. Due to her consistent outstanding scholastic achievements, she has been accepted to the National Honor Society. At present, she is a student at St. Dominic Academy, Jersey City and the homeroom representative to the Student Council.

Of the 118 applicants for Link Crew Leaders, only eighteen have been chosen, and she is one of them. As a link leader, she guides freshmen on how to adapt to the High School environment by giving them time management and schoolwork techniques

She has won many awards in swimming. She continues to strive to become a better swimmer by attending practices from 7-9pm every day. At present, she is the Co-Captain of Saint Dominic Academy's Swim Team.

She is deeply involved in helping the youth to seek out the meaning of God, family, and community in their lives. At present, she is the chapter head of CFC Youth for Christ for Central and South Jersey and youth leader as well as guitarist for the choir.

Felisa Velasco

Justin Verzosa

Justin was given the great opportunity of being a Markets Group Summer Analyst at the Federal Reserve Bank of New York, an Enterprise Systems Solutions Summer Analyst at the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company, Inc. and an Assigned Risk Summer Analyst at the American International Group, Inc.
