"Good Jesus, it is touching to watch you raise the only son of the widow of Naim. How much you must have delighted her broken heart! Your miracles announce that the God of life wills to raise up everything of death. You touch a mother's heart - you promise us life. You raise men to serve and bring to life your living Body, the Church today. We know that you have great expectations of them to bring your life and word to others. You call them to be good stewards of your Word - and generous in calling forth life in service of your brothers and sisters. Today, we remember men anointed by your Spirit, and oil, especially deacons, priests, bishops, who serve us in your Name! "

X Sunday in Ordinary Time, Cycle C

9:15 a.m. - Sunday Morning Prayer.

9:30 a.m. - Holy Mass - Traditional Rite - Mass Book, page 13.

Mass intention: In memory of Bertha Baranowski (1 year anniversary)
- req. by Krysia Newman.

ENTRANCE HYMN (Psalm 18:5-7)

Priest: The breakers of death surged round about me; the menacing floods terrified me. The cords of Sheol tightened; the snares of death lay in wait for me.

All: In my distress I called out: Lord! I cried out to my God. From His temple He heard my voice; my cry to Him reached His ears.

Priest: Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit,

All: As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

FIRST READING: 1 Kings 17:17-24

GRADUAL (Psalm 33:18-19)

Priest: But the Lord's eyes are upon the reverent, upon those who hope for His gracious help.

All: Delivering them from death, keeping them alive in times of famine.

SECOND READING: Galatians 1:11-19

ALLELUIA (Sirach 48:5)

Priest: Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

All: Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

Priest: You brought a dead man back to life from the nether world, by the will of the Lord.

All: Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

GOSPEL: Luke 7:11-17

Priest: A reading from the Holy Gospel according to St. Luke

All: Glory be to You, Lord!

Jesus journeyed to a city called Nain, and his disciples and a large crowd accompanied him. As he drew near to the gate of the city, a man who had died was being carried out, the only son of his mother, and she was a widow. A large crowd from the city was with her. When the Lord saw her, he was moved with pity for her and said to her, "Do not weep." He stepped forward and touched the coffin; at this the bearers halted, and he said, "Young man, I tell you, arise!" The dead man sat up and began to speak, and Jesus gave him to his mother. Fear seized them all, and they glorified God, exclaiming, "A great prophet has arisen in our midst," and "God has visited his people." This report about him spread through the whole of Judea and in all the surrounding region.

Priest: This is the Gospel of the Lord.

All: Praise be to You, Lord Jesus Christ.

Reflection Questions:

1. What did you think when you read that Jesus was "moved with pity for her and said to her, 'Do not weep'"? Did anyone ask him to raise the young man from the dead or did he do it on his own? Could he have been thinking of his own mother? How does this scene make you feel?
2. Compare and contrast Elijah's raising of the widow's son with Jesus' own raising of the widow's son. If Jesus had pity on the woman in her sorrow, do you think he feels pity for all who suffer? Could God have had pity on us, having sent his Son to live with us and suffer with us and bring us all to the heart of the Trinity?

When the Lord saw her, he was moved with pity for her and said to her, "Do not weep."

"Do not weep,"
you say to us,
and, moved with pity,
you join us,
and you weep with us.
Jesus,
let us be moved with pity
when we see our neighbors cry.
