This Week's Meditation Guide

Mary Klein, RScP

This Week's Speaker

Divine Community

Joe Kovach, RScP

Dr. Martin Luther King spoke often of the “Beloved Community,” a world in which all people share the wealth of the earth and violations of human decency are not tolerated. We see the future and our current station as an embodiment of this realization for all.

Book Club

A Note from Sue about book club. Looking at change of day and looking at possible new books. Please email Sue at suegfullmer@gmail.com to express interest or for more information:

Hi all,

We have just completed a study of the Tao Te Ching... Wow! It was a long, involved process! It certainly helped to have others to discuss it with, I appreciate all of you who participated. My life is richer from having had an introduction to that work.

There is change in the Autumn wind....I am starting back to my practitioner studies with the Las Vegas group who will be meeting on Tuesday at 5 pm. Class doesn't start till Nov. 23, so we could keep the day and time the same for now or start with a new schedule. I would recommend Thursday at 6 pm.

I am recommending we do a book from Oct. 19-Nov. 16 or corresponding Thursdays, and then start on Dec. 2 with a new book. I suggest the December book be, Discover the Power Within by Eric Butterworth. Allen highly recommends the book and has offered to help me facilitate, which I will really need the help by then!

So, for our next book, these have been suggested:

Atomic Habits by James Clear (I have heard this is good. Anyone have any bad habits to work on?)

Resolve your Fears – Activate your Spiritual Immune System by CSL author, Medrano

The Gentle Art of Blessing by Pierre Pradervand (some of us studied this book with Rev. Laura – excellent!)

Anam Cara by John O'Donohue (Anita recommends this one).

Please check on these books and tell me what you prefer. I will be in Florida Oct. 2-12, but will have my digital ears on to communicate with you. Let me know what you prefer by Oct. 5, so we can announce it and invite others to join us.

Thanks for your support.

Hugs, Sue
