

HHH Storytelling Prework

1) Jot down the essence of what your organization is about.

Why do people care about what your organization does?

And, how does your organization impact the people you serve?

2) Bring a picture that illustrates how your organization makes a difference.

(It can be an actual picture from your organization or something you find on the Internet or in a magazine that represents what you and your organization do.)