

JANUARY 2018 MEETING

Grant Carlos Smith
USDA Natural Resources Conservation Service
Price, Utah

The presentation will feature Navajo Rock Art. Grant was able to excavate several Early Navajo and Pueblo/Anasazi sites. He has also studied artifacts from the Late Prehistoric and Fremont sites. He was a Crew Chief during BYU excavation of Fremont sites in Utah Valley. He currently works out of the Price office.

PRE-REGISTER FOR FIELD TRIP January 20, 2018

The field trip will be to Arrow Canyon near Moapa, Nevada. This site contains Petroglyph styles from Archaic to early Pueblo periods. We will gather at the Bloomington Wal-Mart at 8 am. It will be about an hour and half drive to the trailhead. The walk will be 2 to 3 miles. Trip numbers are limited to 12-15 people. So please sign up early.

Remember only signed and paid members of the Club can go on field trips. Please do not bring friends or family members.

You can sign up at the meeting or pre-register by sending an email to the field trip guide, Jim King. His email is jamesking5627@gmail.com or call him at 509-733-1396.

DAS MEMBERSHIPS DUE

January is renewal time for the dues. The annual dues are $25.00 for an individual and $30.00 for a couple. This cost includes the monthly meetings and the field trips. You can find the form on the website: dixierockart.com or you can pick up one at the meeting. Please make your check payable to DAS. Forms and money can be mailed to: Dixie Archaeology Society, P. O. Box 611, Washington, Utah 84780. Please sign up. We have great speakers and great field trips lined up for 2018.

NEEDED BOARD MEMBERS

Due to an illness, Chris Oravec has resigned from the Board. She put in many dedicated hours to write reports, find presenters and anything else that was needed. She will be greatly missed. DAS continues to grow and thrive. Because of the growth and activity, we do need new Board members. Please help keep our club going. If you are interested, you can contact Kaye (Feather) Robinson at whitefeather7@gmail.com.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

John Mangels, past president of DAS, was one of the nine nominations for the Painting category of the INDY Awards given out by the Independent Newspaper. Please vote early for the final awards. To vote, go to suindependent.com/2017-indy-awards-voting-poles-art/. Congratulations to John!!
