*It is our custom here at Immaculate Conception to remain standing as you are able until the last person has received communion. There will then be time to sit or kneel in private prayer.

ALLELUIA!

Alleluia! Our praise word has been silent for forty days. Alleluia means “Praise Ye, Lord,” and we sing it out in joyful trinities today. Praise is as common to our liturgical life as petition, but we tend to overlook it. The eucharistic prayer at the heart of the Mass is a prayer of praise and thanksgiving, which teaches us something about the order of such prayer. Praising God is naturally followed by litanies of reasons flowing from grateful hearts. Our responsorial psalms, interspersed throughout the Easter Vigil and sung at every Mass, dance with the opportunity to give praise to the One who keeps all promises. Alleluia!

POSTLUDE: Toccata (from Symphonie V, op. 42)

Charles-Marie Widor (1844-1937)

In thanksgiving for all those at who preside at prayer, welcome God's people, proclaim God's word, lead us in song, serve at our liturgy, disinfect our worship space, minister the Holy Eucharist, and for all who pray and celebrate with us this day, both in person and online.
