I began my paralegal career in Cleveland Ohio working as a litigation paralegal and as a Lawyer Referral Service coordinator at the Cleveland Bar Association. In 1997, I had moved to the Boston Massachusetts area and continued my legal career working for law firms and in in-house positions. In October of 2008 I returned to Cleveland and I am currently working at Chapman LLC as a securities paralegal focusing on FINRA matters with additional responsibilities in firm marketing. I have extensive experience in the legal profession working in a variety of industries on state, national and international matters. I have been working as a paralegal since 1995.

Marketing Coordinator Position

I have varied and extensive experience in marketing and legal marketing and I think I could use this experience to help promote CAP and paralegals in the legal industry.
