

Teens HONESTY homework

Showing HONESTY all the time is something it's easy for people to say they do, or will do. However, reality throws a lot of predicaments at us that can make being honest difficult, and sometimes it may definitely NOT seem like the best policy. Briefly, write some thoughts about some reasons that may make it more difficult for us to be honest with people, and possible ways to overcome these impediments: _____

Lined writing area for the student's response.

Lined writing area for the student's response.

