

O JESUS, OUR ETERNAL KING, REIGN IN OUR HEARTS. O JESUS, MOST MERCIFUL KING, REIGN IN OUR HEARTS.

The readings for the Solemnity of Christ the King focus on the kingship of Jesus Christ, who is not a king like the rulers of this world. In the first reading David is anointed the king of Israel. In the second reading Paul tells us that we are going to share in the inheritance of Jesus Christ. In the gospel, from the cross, Jesus tells the good thief that he will join him in paradise.

ALLELUIA!

Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord!
Blessed is the kingdom of our father David that is to come!

The word "martyr" originally derived from the "Greek word martus [signifying] a witness who testifies to a fact of which he has knowledge from personal observation." In Christian usage this was at first applied to the apostles, who witnessed first hand the life of Jesus Christ and his resurrection.

Later on in the first centuries of the Church the term was used exclusively to denote those holy men and women who gave witness to Christ by shedding their blood. As the Catechism of the Catholic Church states, "Martyrdom is the supreme witness given to the truth of the faith: it means bearing witness even unto death. The martyr bears witness to Christ who died and rose, to whom he is united by charity. He bears witness to the truth of the faith and of Christian doctrine. He endures death through an act of fortitude. 'Let me become the food of the beasts, through whom it will be given me to reach God.'" (CCC 2473)

Miguel Augustine Pro Juárez (1891-1927) was killed for being a Catholic priest during the persecution of the Church under President Plutarco Elías Calles, who was rabidly anti-Catholic.

Falsely accused in the bombing attempt on a former Mexican president, Miguel became a wanted man. Betrayed to the police, he was sentenced to death without the benefit of any legal process.

On the day of his execution, Fr. Pro forgave his executioners, prayed, bravely refused the blindfold and died proclaiming, "Viva Cristo Rey", "Long live Christ the King!"

We are in need of volunteers to keep the Sacred Heart Mission website current. We have enjoyed doing so the last few years but are in Cloudcroft less frequently so we think it is a good time to hand the website to someone else.
