

SPEAKING of the TRUE GOD (I AM)

Dear interested fellow inhabitants of earth; if I should make the statement:

(My God is the (or an) everlasting God who has brought forth creation. And Jesus the Christ (or Messiah) is His beloved Son. And I declare by faith that the God and Father of Jesus have raised Jesus from the dead. Therefore, by my faith, I confess Jesus, His death on the cross, and His resurrection as my only salvation from my sin (not your sin; that is for you to say, or declare), and that I am alive with Him for evermore),

Then ...

I can be totally confident that I am speaking of the TRUE GOD of heaven, and none other, without knowing His Hebrew names!

Why?? Because the confession(s) I have written above fits no one or nothing else in the universe!!

No (D)demon, no S(s)atan, no D(d)evil, no spirit, no god, no idol, no M(m)an, N(n)othing else, can lay claim to the things of GOD/ God/ LORD GOD ALMIGHTY/ ... and make it stick/ stay/ TRUE/ or real except GOD.

HE is THE FINAL JUDGE. Study the Book of Revelation. All god pretenders, powers, authorities, GOD haters, disobedience(s) to GOD are dealt with at that time, by Him, alone!

These things I have declared are not capable by none other, but GOD ALMIGHTY! Some other(s) may claim them, but that does not make it so! And GOD ALMIGHTY is not without sight and understanding, HE knows! We do not need to help HIM understand, which is, what we so often think we must do!!

I recommend you totally separate your thinking from the notion that creation has made itself. If you believe creation made itself, then other things made themselves, right? Hence, the thinking becomes, "other gods made themselves, and we must be certain to speak of (to) the correct one". You either believe the Scriptures, or you do not. And if you are not yet convinced, you are in the mode of searching references to prove Scripture; and not for the purpose of understanding what is written in Scripture! In my mind, there is a difference.

I pray for your good success in searching out the correct GOD ALMIGHTY according to the perfect will of GOD ALMIGHTY (in the name of HIS SON, JESUS).

And, by the way, I applaud scholars that GOD ALMIGHTY uses to help the masses have access to HIS message. I especially delight in knowing and understanding the many Hebrew names of GOD ALMIGHTY/ God/ I AM, our (the) CREATOR! The value of such a study is priceless.

Finally, if there are those which remain convinced they must get the name(s) of GOD perfect, less they sin, then "I AM" is HIS perfect name!
