

Greg Mortensen, PT, DPT

Specialty: Physical Therapist

Greg originally worked in law enforcement, but became interested in physical therapy after becoming involved as a patient (feel free to ask him about his experience as a patient). In 2012, he attended Brigham Young University and graduated with a B.S. in Exercise Science. In 2015, he earned his Doctor of Physical Therapy degree from Eastern Washington University in Spokane, WA. He now works with the pain management, work conditioning and work hardening programs.

Greg has spent time working as a physical therapist in a skilled nursing facility, both acute and outpatient settings. He also has experience as a personal trainer and enjoys playing sports, having been involved with soccer most of his life.
