

WEST VIRGINIA TAX INSTITUTE

BIO FOR

STEVE STOCKTON

Steve Stockton has been a supervising attorney in the Legal Division of the West Virginia State Tax Department since September of 2015. He has also worked in state government at the Consolidated Public Retirement Board and the Office of the Attorney General, and in private practice with the law firm Robinson & McElwee PLLC. Before arriving in West Virginia, he worked at the National Office of the Internal Revenue Service and the U.S. Tax Court in Washington, D.C., and for the law firm of Bradford & Associates in Abingdon, Virginia.

Although his academic credentials are mostly about thirty years old, and therefore arguably totally irrelevant, he recognizes that some people like to know this sort of thing:

B.A. (double major, Economics and Telecommunications) Indiana University, Bloomington

J.D. Washington & Lee University School of Law

LLM (Taxation) Marshall-Wythe School of Law, College of William and Mary

Executive MBA West Virginia University

He has been warned against having a discernible personality.
