MILITARY HISTORY:
“Before Hiroshima: Forgotten Prisoners of War in Japan, Burma and the Far East” J Jeynes (bound paperback) ISBN: 978-0-9926100-9-8. * New version to be released later in 2021 so this is the last chance to buy this issue – only 22 copies left at this price.  A History of WWII in the Far East with personal stories from Prisoners of War and Internees captured by the Japanese. As well as information on the fall of Hong Kong and then Singapore, it includes official and eye-witness accounts about how prisoners were held in Burma and Japan, including those working on the “Death Railway”. It reflects on lack of government support for prisoners and families after the war ended – VJ Day August 15th 1945. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Useful to support a talk/Presentation in libraries, particularly around the August date for VJ Day. 	£16.00	£10.00
“Iraqi Kurdistan – New Horizons” David Barratt ISBN: 978-1-9998352-8-6 B5 bound • New 2021  Operation Safe Haven was established as a disaster relief mission for the Kurds in northern Iraq during the Gulf War. It was hailed as a military success but no credit has been given to the civilian volunteers who made it happen on the ground. The author, David Barratt, was one of the brave civilians who volunteered to help with the mission so this is his way “to set the records straight” on how crucial the volunteers were. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> An important addition to military history collections Useful to support a talk/presentation in libraries. 	£15.00	£12.50
MEMOIR/ COOKERY
“Badly Chopped Carrots & Everyday Dinners” by Anita Rogers Burrell. 1st edition, high quality presentation ISBN: 978-1-9998352-2-4. A4 size, bound & full colour illustrations throughout.  Stories from a Canadian living in rural Wales. The author is a counselling psychologist, lives in Ceredigion, and has produced a fascinating book that combines stories and comments on living in Wales with a wide range of easy-to-follow recipes – a much more interesting approach than just a cookery book! Anita	£25.00	£20.00

draws a parallel between life generally and ‘badly chopped carrots’ – often wonky and a bit odd in places. Some great reviews in magazines so a good addition to the shelves. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Useful to support a Book Signing by the author (in libraries in Wales)
“Walking Wales: The Art Lover’s Guide to Wye Valley Way” by Jacqueline Jeynes.
