

A “Rife machine” is a research instrument invented by Dr. Royal Raymond Rife. A Rife machine is an electronic device which emits audio and/or radio waves applied in some fashion to an individual with the intent of bettering the individual’s health. The rate at which these waves are emitted is called ‘frequency’, which is measured in ‘hertz’, or cycles per second. They are used by experimenters (both practitioners and private users alike) to try to influence the body in making natural influences for healing changes. We use the term experimentation deliberately, as that is exactly what this is, finding the correct individuals healing frequency.

Royal Rife is considered one of the greatest scientific minds of the 20th Century. He is credited in the book, “The Cancer Cure That Worked”, as the man who discovered a cure for cancer and many other diseases... simply by using vibrational energy. Rife learned that different species of life have their own electromagnetic ‘signature’, or pattern of oscillation (frequency) based on its individual genetic chemical blueprint. It’s different for all. Dr. Rife discovered that viruses, bacteria, and parasites are particularly sensitive to their own specific ‘bio frequencies’ and could be destroyed by intensifying those frequencies until specific changes occur within the pathogen and would debilitate and die. Sometimes they could see them literally explode... like an intense musical note, frequency pitch, that can shatter a wine glass.

Disease or illness is viewed as a battle of vibrations between the cells of the body versus viruses and bacteria. If the pathogenic organisms won this vibrational war, the cells would become energetically weakened and more susceptible to disease. According to Lakhovsky, an engineer and inventor, said the way to counter this vibrational attack was to introduce a broad spectrum of RF (radio frequency) harmonic energies into the system and then, through the principle of sympathetic resonance, each cell would pick out exactly the proper frequency needed to reinforce its own internal vibration and the healthy cell would be more resistant to vibrational attack from virus and bacteria.

Nikola Tesla argued that by going back to our base physical components, it can be safely said that the physical body is built from multitudes of particles held together by electrical bonds. Electrical forces are what hold atoms and molecules together. Chemical bonds and reactions depend on these electrical forces. Therefore, all chemical reactions are, in essence, reorganizations of electrical forces, which continue to be vital at body levels, i.e., tissues and organs. *When all of this is taken in account, of a living organism, it is shown to be an extremely intricate electrical system (Gibson and Gibson 1987).

After many attempts using his powerful microscope, Royal Rife finally isolated and identified what he called the human cancer virus and named it BX (Bacillus X) virus. He then cultured the virus and injected it into lab animals, which created cancer tumors in all 400 of them. Later he was able to eliminate the cancer by using a device he created. This irradiating device emitted a frequency of electro-magnetic energy thereby causing the cancer virus to self-destruct when within that energy field. Later he used a device that involved direct contact.

Remarkably, Rife machines have been around for almost 100 years. These Rife machines had astonishing successes. In 1931, 44 top doctors celebrated “The End of All Disease”. Unfortunately, “the end of disease” did not fit the business model of other companies who preferred to “manage disease” instead. It makes better business sense to have a regular income. So, the early Rife machines and documentation were destroyed. Recently, there has been a revival of interest. People are rediscovering the effectiveness of Rife treatments. They are learning to take control over their own health and end the spiral of drug dependency.

Wellness is a state of dynamic balance in the body where illness simply cannot exist. This self-evident axiom holds true that "in perfect balance there can be no disease." The human body is a magnificent and miraculous machine that constantly repairs itself from damage, foreign invaders and mutant cells when it is in balance. Conversely, when the body is out of balance a host of possible diseases can and usually do occur.

Since the passing of Royal Rife many scientists, engineers and doctors have formed an alliance to continue his work and have since created and discovered, through much study & research, the findings of over 50,000 protocols using frequency sets to continue his work in the success of the healing journey! The greatest is the use of Blood Purify, Detox and in continuing the Killing of many pathogens, viruses, parasites and diseases.
