THOUGHTS ON EASTER

Luke's writings show that God sent his Son to free us and let us live without fear of death. This message is still important today. Religion can become focused on ceremony and be without meaning. The shock of the resurrection energized the early Christians. And it should energize us also.

The message of the empty tomb was confusing when the disciples first encountered it. Where had they taken the body? What has happened here? But they are reminded of Jesus' words and then it made sense. The experiences of our own lives can be confusing when we try to interpret them without faith.

Once the message is correctly framed, it is too good to keep to ourselves. Nothing, not even death and persecution, could keep those early disciples from spreading the Good News. We must also be able to first hear the message of transformation and then spread it to others.

PRAYER

My Lord, hope is restored, joy and excitement are instilled in many hearts as You quietly, gently and gloriously rise from the dead and bring forth new life for this fallen world. Sweet Jesus, give me the eyes of faith that I may see and believe in Your Resurrection. Help me to know the effects of Your triumph in my life. As I come to know You, my resurrected Lord, help me to entrust to You all that I am and all that I hope to be. Help me to trust in the abundant Mercy that flows from Your resurrected soul.

Dear Lord, help me to enter deeply into the mystery of Easter during this eight day celebration of the Octave of Easter. I pray that every day of this Octave will be a day of deepening trust and union with You in the glory of Your Resurrection.

Lord of Mercy, as our Church prepares for the glorious celebration of Mercy, poured out in a special way on the eighth day of this Octave on Divine Mercy Sunday, help me to open my heart more deeply than ever before to the abundance of Grace and Mercy You wish to bestow. Pour forth Your Mercy into my life and into the lives of all Your children. I offer You my family, friends, community and the entire world. I pray for the faithful, the sinner, the lost and confused, the clergy, our Holy Father and all of Your precious children. May we all anticipate, with eager hope, the abundance of grace You wish to dispense. We ask this through Christ our Lord, AMEN.
