

BOYLE BULL-

DEC. '83 ETIN ISSUE 04

OPENING WORD:

Merry Christmas! I'm hoping this will get to you before the holiday season so you can relax and read. I've asked Mr. Lendrum if I could put a hold on the publication of part four of his Saga of Henry Boyle to allow the inclusion of a larger than normal quantity of other materials. Since he felt that a little more time for research wouldn't hurt, he happily assented.

So, in this issue we have a massively expanded "Tree and Leaf" section in which I have attempted to include something of interest to each of my readers. You will all notice that my information is not always correct. Do let me know if it isn't. Some of you will be surprised to find out how much I do know about you.

Happy reading.

Our first "ancestral chart" to be published in the BOYLE BULLETIN is, naturally, my own. It consists of three parts: 1) the chart, 2) photos of ancestors, and 3) some vital statistics. I would encourage other readers to send in similar charts. They will be published as space permits.

I owe much of the above information to my grandmother, Mary (Taylor) Boyle [AID=BDCA(S)], who was very active in helping to compile the family trees for the Forests, the Stringers, the Davises, and the Taylors. I recall asking her once why she never did the Boyle tree and she said she didn't have the time to do a good job. I'm beginning to understand this as I find the time scarce working on one tree.

The numbers of the chart are references to the following vital statistics.

There are tenuous suggestions that John STEWART (87) is descended from a first cousin of Bonnie Prince Charlie. The published evidence is rumoured to exist in a book called "The history of Armagh" or "Tales of Armagh" or something like that. However the book was published in a limited edition over a hundred years ago and no one I know of has seen it or seen a direct quote from it.

I believe Catherine McINTYRE is the daughter of Peter McINTYRE (91) although I have yet to find the proof. Peter McINTYRE emigrated to Canada with Chief Archibald McNab around 1826. He played an active role in the rebellion against the Laird of McNab and his feudalistic practices. Henry Boyle on Pakenham mountain and Peter McIntyre in White Lake were practically neighbours. They also likely suffered some of the same hardships in trying to eke a living out of the same inhospitable soil.

LETTERS:

From Betty Saunders of Winnipeg, Manitoba.

Enclosed find payment for the Boyle Bulletin for a year and also any back issues that I might have missed. I received issue #00 from a cousin and thus learned about your Bulletin, which I think is a wonderful idea.

I am a Boyle descendant. My grandmother was Janet Ann Boyle, daughter of William Boyle who came to Manitoba from the Ottawa Valley in the late 1800's.

I am the custodian of the family bible given to Janet Ann Boyle and John McNabb on their marriage and I am going to try and work from them to the present and make a tree to give to all the branches of their spreading families. I hope then that they can keep it up. This is my Winter project. My only problem is how to lay it out.

Good luck with the paper. I will look forward to receiving it.

From Ethel Ryan of Cardiff, Ontario

I've shocked you!! Right? You thought I'd forgotten about you and your terrific "Boyle Bulletin". How could I? Your parents would disown me for sure if I did. [I have to say I was surprised that you didn't respond earlier. GB]

I'm Ethel Ryan (Boyle). My father, George Boyle, and your grandfather, Henry Boyle, were brothers. Anything re Boyle or Davis interests me greatly. Payment is enclosed for my subscription plus may I have any issues that have followed #00 and #01.

My sister and my brother are interested in receiving all your bulletins also.

Keep up your good work, Garvin, and please pardon the delay.

From Len and Joan Pealow of Orillia, Ontario

Just a thought in regard to the baptismal listings in this past issue. Possibly Martha Reid may have been married before. Perhaps Martha McAdam was her maiden name.

My reason for thinking this might be possible is that our ancestor William Boyle (quoted born 11 July 1836 and baptised August 28th, 1836, son of Henry Boyle and Martha McAdam), had a daughter Martha McAdam Boyle born in 1873. Her sister Jeanetta Boyle was our ancestress.

I would be interested to hear what other readers of the Bulletin think of this idea.

[It makes a lot of sense to me. I mentioned it to Mr. Lendrum and I believe he may follow it up. If anybody else has some thoughts on the matter, jot them down and send them in. GB]

From a secret source

Once again, thanks for the Boyle Bull - I enjoy its contents.

On page 5 you mention that Miss Henrietta Boyle believes her father Robert was the first white child born in Wilberforce Twp. (June 26, 1848). I don't wish to be argumentative but my information is at variance with this. I just can't find it now but I am sure in some of the notes I have read on Wilberforce that a Dennison man was the first white child. I have two "Edwards" ancestors both born there - one in 1844 and one in 1847 so I am sure there were others before 1848.

Hope you are enjoying your new home. [Yes I am, very much! GB]

From Mr. F. Clyde Lendrum of King City

I enjoyed Issue no. 3 of the "Boyle Bulletin" and want to thank you for including some of the documents that I have referred to in the saga of Henry Boyle. Incidentally, if you want another interpretation for the list of tools, may I refer you to Issue no. 2 of the "Boyle Bulletin", Page 16.

[Blush!! I must confess that I had not cross-referenced my document to the article in Issue No 2. and so published a largely redundant document in Issue No 3. Ahh well!!!]

I am still hunting for Catherine's marriage and death and surely somebody in that country knows something. I agree with you that Catherine is probably buried in or around Deacon. There is almost sure to be more information around Wilberforce Township, Pembroke and Eganville regarding Henry Boyle and that school [on his property] but, I do not have much access to this data.

A couple of additions to your own data. Henry's daughter Elizabeth, known as Liza (AID=BH) died in 1932 and is buried in Maple Leaf, Ontario. George Davis is buried beside her and I took a picture of the headstone which I will get one of these days. Edward (AID=BI) is buried in Purdy, in the old cemetery but there is no headstone. This data I checked out with Delbert Davis, who knew Edward and who helped dig his grave. Delbert is about 77 years old and lives in Maple Leaf. He has a number of interesting stories about Edward.

[I have a couple of other letters from Mr. Lendrum which I will follow up on next issue, (I hope).]

LAST WORD:

Well! That wraps it up for this year. I hope you enjoyed it. Thanks for the mail. I like to know that the BOYLE BULL is being read. Attached to this issue is an account sheet. I sure would like to see some renewals sent in. For next year I have a character sketch of William Boyle (AID=BA) written by Cliff Boyle of Port Coquitlam in B.C. I also have chapter four in the Saga of Henry Boyle by F. Clyde Lendrum of King City, Ont. We will also wrap up the third generation of families under TREE & LEAF and begin the massive task of publishing the fourth, fifth, sixth and seventh. Finally, I still have lots of interesting documents (at least they are interesting to pack-rats like me) which will be included as the urge strikes me.

I'm still hoping to receive ancestral charts, family trees with complete data, character sketches, biographies (short ones), stories, reminiscences, interviews of the older folks, pictures, newspaper clippings, cheerful greetings or just mental ramblings. I suspect for many of you its something you plan to get around to 'some day'. Please don't let time slip by too far; the rest of us are waiting on you.

Have a pleasant holiday season and a really good year. God bless you all.

William Boyle

BOYLE BULLETIN ACCOUNT SHEET

It's time to renew your subscriptions. As I am out of pocket by only a hundred dollars or so I have decided not to raise the subscription price. I still prefer to make promises for blocks of four (roughly one year at a time). Emotionally it's easier to handle that way. When I think about how long this might take to complete I get discouraged.

Below I've detailed your account. Some of you have established credits for extra issues so I am 'billing' you only for the remaining issues in the second block of four. If any of the information is in error (for example if you have not received all of the issues indicated) please let me know.

Make checks payable to Garvin Boyle or to The BOYLE BULLETIN.
