DIFFERENTIATORS

Proven supply chain management processes: Developed innovative supply chain solutions by applying industry driven inventory management analysis policy and procedures. Results: Saved $2M by identifying and eliminating excess high value parts. Reduced customer wait-times by 30% and improved overall aircraft readiness for NASA's flight research operation using demand history improvements, lean warehousing techniques and predictive analysis

Reach Back: We can quickly mobilize supply chain and lean six sigma subject matter experts needed to optimize supply chain operations and improve repair/ production flow. Focus areas are lean operations, the Internet of Things (IoT), Blockchain, and Cyber and Risk Analysis.

Extensive program and contract management experience leading multimillion-dollar logistics contracts world-wide to include Kosovo, Iraq, Kuwait and Afghanistan.

PAST PERFORMANCE

NASA, Scientific and Commercial Systems Corporation (Subcontractor- Contract #275200001-PLI) POP 2014-2018, Tammy Shippy, Contracts Officer, tshippy@scsc.com

Supply Chain Management & Consulting: PLI's initiative, customer focus, and technical competence resulted in dollars savings and cost avoidance in excess of $1M inventory management of critical spares within a six-month period. This was accomplished by implementing standardization policies, lean analysis, supply chain analysis, data visualization, predictive analysis and end-to-end flow of information.

Army Sustainment Center for Excellence, PD Systems, Inc. (Subcontractor- Contract# PDS-11-PG-SCOED0025-004), POC: William Molino, Vice President-Contracts, Phone: 703-778-7694, email: Wmolino@pd-sys-net.

Training: Provided qualified logistics instructors as subcontractors supporting the Ordnance School's Advanced Individual Training program. PLI conducted training for over 3225 military students. Received consistently glowing kudos from the government's master instructor.
