REFLECTIONS

Hello! Welcome to a brand-new month of warmer weather and preparation for an exciting time of the year. Time has never stood still. We may have moments when we feel it has but more often it feels like it is just flying. Time has a way of getting away from us and we do not even notice how quickly it does pass. "Poof"! Before we know it, kids are grown and gone, grand kids come into our lives, and we make more noise when we move than the video on the kid's phone. How can it be possible that so much time has passed right before our eyes? We ask ourselves, "where has the time gone?" "How can I be this old and can it be so?" Time is something we live every minute, but we are not in constant thought of. We try to keep track, but we are human and like other things in our lives we lose track. Some of us even become obsessed with it and still it eludes us, and we waste it. How do we use our time? Can we find the time to spend a moment of it with GOD? Do we consider this time as a waste or fulfilling? There are many songs, poems, and literature on time. Our lives depend on time and how long of time are we here on this earth. The question is, is our life timeless? Sure, we have a limited amount of time in this life but what comes next? Is our life timeless? Do we live forever in eternity? How is time in heaven? We hear a day in heaven is like a thousand years here on earth. Can heaven be timeless? It is stated in scripture that it is. So why the rush; why the hurry here on earth? "Why don't we take the back roads?" or "stop and smell the roses" as the sayings go? Take a breath and take a moment to take it all in and appreciate a second in time. We are surrounded with good things that we just do not take the time to be thankful for. We rush into things and jump in without ever giving it a second thought and we end up paying for it somewhere down the line. We were too busy supporting and providing that we do not know when our kids became adults. We see them now doing the same thing to their families. We recognize it now when it is too late, or is it? We try to explain to our kids so they do not make the same mistake. The problem is, there are bills to pay and errands to run and work that never ends. It is a vicious circle that has no end. We need more hours in the day, time TIME!! One day our time is up, at least here on earth. Reflect on how we have spent our time. When we feel we have wasted our time has it really been a waste or a moment to treasure. We have even thought about "that is an hour I am never going to get back." I pray we do not feel that way after church or relaxing in the sun on a Saturday afternoon. What about time spent with family and friends? I pray we do not consider these moments a waste. May we all find time for all the good things in life and a little less time on the bad. Take time to pray. Take time to share. Take time, period. We only have so much time. Make every second of it count. Loving kindness is never a waste of time. Be in the moment and think about how we are going to spend the rest of our time here on earth and when the time comes also in Heaven. GOD'S blessings to all. Find peace and happiness with the rest of our time.

Amen

Love and Laughter

The Mayflowers

by Lenore Hetrick

The mayflowers are bursting
In blooming array
They offer their tribute
Memorial Day.
All white and all pink
The small buds are seen
Dotting the velvet
Of hillside and green.

They bloom in sweet honor
Of all soldiers gone
Who died for their country
One battlefield dawn.
They bloom with sweet pity,
And they bloom with rare love,
Looking up to the sky
And the gold sun above.

What could be better
This bright day of May
Than to have all the flowers
Blooming this way?
They speak words we cannot,
They say what we should,
Bursting forth in their beauty
In valley and wood.

Holcombe UMC Mission Committee Minutes – April 20, 2021

Present: Pastor Paul Messmer, Jerry Vaughn, Carol Cote, Mary Beede, Cheri Bingham
Meeting started at 1:10, concluded at 2:00pm

Cheri started the meeting with a prayer.

“Old”/ongoing business & projects:

Noisy bucket collection (for Mujilla Falls agriculture center in Zambia) is ongoing. Giving has improved with in-person worship. Bucket will remain at the back of the sanctuary for weekly giving.

Ingathering collection for Annual Conference- Thanks to those who set up the collection area. Will continue to remind the congregation of the project. Full kits or specific items may be donated. See the table in the fellowship area for information. Items collected will be taken to Eau Claire Lake St. UMC in early June.

School supply collection is on hold pending further information from the school.

Food pantry collection going well. Suggestion was made to maybe give our collection a “new name” to help promote interest (such as “Fill the kitchen/pantry cupboards”,etc).

New business:

Discussed our Wisconsin UMC camps & how we can promote attendance. There are scholarships available from the conference, as well as from our church. We will be posting some information, but all conference information & registration is online this year (wiumcamps.org). Camps are available for youth, adults and families.

Special Sundays and when to hold them. Native American Sunday will be moved to the summer. Plans in progress to contact the leader at Odanah to schedule him to speak. Peace with Justice is usually held the first Sunday after Pentecost, which would be May 30th this year. The group agreed that this date would work for our April-June quarter special Sunday. (*Note- date later changed at Ad Board)

Other discussion included how often our committee needs to meet. In the past this committee met every other month. With the numerous projects in progress, we agreed to meet again in May and revisit this item.

Cheri mentioned a short video shown during the Bishop’s Convocation of Laity Leadership (held in March). The video was of Mujilla Falls Agriculture Center and the new missionary, Temba Nkomozepi, who took Paul Webster’s position. The group felt they would like the congregation to see this to show how our support helps them. Cheri will check on this.

Pastor Paul closed with prayer.

Next meeting scheduled for May 11, 2021 at 1:00 pm.

Minutes by C. Bingham
