

ANGELO ROMAN, JR.

Angelo Roman, Jr. has over 45 years experience working in various capacities within the legal profession. He is a graduate of the UCLA School of Law Attorney Assistant Training Program, graduating with a specialty in litigation. He attended Western State University College of Law, the University of Phoenix and has an AA Degree in Liberal Arts from Mt. San Antonio College.

Roman is also a graduate of the United States Academy of Private Investigation, The Credit and Debt Institute, the Herbert Hawkins Scholl of Real Estate and the ABTS Institute of Estate Preservation, the Rose Hills Memorial Park Academy of Estate Planning and the founder of Living Trust Sales and Services, providing families assistance with Revocable Living Trusts.

He has over 30 years of experience of direct experience with numerous national law firms covering several areas of law including personal injury, bankruptcy, family law, credit and collections, civil litigation, criminal defense, estate planning and evictions. Roman has worked in the credit and collections field for well over 25 years and has experience in settlement negotiations, dispute resolution, skip tracing and investigations. He is a former small claims court advisor for the Department of Consumer Affairs for the County of Los Angeles and has assisted many individuals with credit and debt negotiations.

Since 2006, Roman has been a licensed private investigator duly licensed by the State of California. He is a registered and bonded process server through the County of Los Angeles and is a former State of California real estate license holder.

He has lectured and presented seminars and workshops on the paralegal profession, credit and collections, small claims court and other topics. He is a former member of the Advisory committee for the paralegal programs at Rio Hondo College (Whittier, CA) and Platt College (Ontario, CA). He has taught legal courses at Chaffey College (Alta Loma, CA) Career Colleges of America (San Bernardino, CA) and from 2007-2014 was an instructor in the paralegal program for ICDC College (Huntington Park, CA) educating and training aspiring paralegals.

Roman is a member in good standing of the National Association of Professional Process Servers, associate member of the American Bar Association and has been affiliated with numerous organizations such as: The American Trial Lawyers Association, The National Association of Legal Assistants, California Association of Independent Paralegals, California Association of Licensed Investigators, The United States Association of Private Investigators, National Paralegal Association, National Association of Legal Document Preparers, National Association of Legal Services and the National Association of Legal Investigators.

Since 1993 he has operated : “At Your Service”, an independent legal assistance, court advocacy and process serving company, providing low costs legal assistance services to law firms, individuals and small to mid sized businesses. Services to attorneys and law firms include investigations, new case sign ups, court filings and research. Over the last 30 years, Roman has investigated well over 3,000 new personal injury cases.

Since 2015, he has worked as a Small Claims court specialist assisting hundreds of clients throughout Southern California with their cases.

Roman is the CEO of Legal Eyes, Inc., a California corporation which is the corporate parent of AR Investigations and At Your Service.

For further information, please visit: www.arinvestigations4u.com

Or call (626) 388-1537