

The Rosellys

BRITISH AMERICANA

The Rosellys Press Kit

"The Rosellys capture the essence of country, with folk ingredients baked into a transatlantic roots fusion" - R2 4/5 Stars

"The Rosellys are a band who make no apology for their love of Americana. Musically, they blend English accents with lyrical references to both the UK and US alongside well pitched bass, feisty drum beats and stunning pedal steel and fiddle to create a sound that walks the fine line between Celtic folk and Americana"

Nashville Over Here

In 2015 The Rosellys signed to Clubhouse Records and released their first full band album 'The Granary Sessions', gathering praise from musicians, critics and audiences alike. In April 2016 they performed live on BBC Radio 4's 'Loose Ends' with Clive Anderson. They have toured extensively across the UK, Australia and America - notably the Southern States where San Antonio (Texas) has become their second home. Influenced by artists such as Emmylou Harris, Gram Parsons, Alison Krauss, Chris Stapleton, Gillian Welch and Dave Rawlings, it is clear The Rosellys have an absolute love for Americana music.

"A brilliant band and a good example of that crossover where Britain meets America and it makes a very special sound indeed"

(Ralph McLean - BBC Radio Ulster)

"The Granary Sessions is an album of sweet-sounding modern Americana from England"
"A band full of taste and talent, an outfit with a firm grip and grasp of the modern country scene"

(Music News Nashville)

"Exquisite lyrics"

"Whether you try to label it alt folk or Americana or roots, at the end of the day it's a fine album"

(Country Music People 4/5 Stars)
