

A BRIEF HISTORY

WESTERN AREA DARTS ASSOCIATION

Western Area Darts Association (WADA) was formed on the 22nd March, 1989.

It was initially formed to provide an association for the people of the Western suburbs and in particular the Port Adelaide Region.

The Association is a mixed association for both male and female dart players and currently has in excess of 300 registered members, the majority of whom reside within our association boundaries. The Association runs competitions Wednesday nights.

Western Area Darts Association (WADA) is a Mixed Association Formed in 1989 of Male, Female and Junior Participants

- Members come from all Areas Within Metropolitan Adelaide to Participate
- Membership is Strong & Continually Growing
