Author: Neil J Salkind
ISBN: 9781506333830

I enthusiastically recommended it for anyone interested in the subject and even and especially for those who aren't! Neil J. Salkind received his PhD in human development from the University of Maryland, and after teaching for 35 years at the University of Kansas, he was Professor Emeritus in the Department of Psychology and Research in Education, where he collaborated with colleagues and work with students. His early interests were in the area of childrens cognitive development, and after research in the areas of cognitive style and what was then known as hyperactivity, he was a postdoctoral fellow at the University of North Carolinas Bush Center for Child and Family Policy.

His work then changed direction to focus on child and family policy, specifically the impact of alternative forms of public support on various child and family outcomes. He has edited several encyclopedias, including the Encyclopedia of Human Development, the Encyclopedia of Measurement and Statistics, and the Encyclopedia of Research Design. He was editor of Child Development Abstracts and Bibliography for 13 years. He lived in Lawrence, Kansas, where he liked to read, swim with the River City Sharks, work as the proprietor and sole employee of big boy press, bake brownies see [www.
