SUMMER 2014

Chocolate / Σοκολάτα !

Our April event was really sweet - a visit to the University of Utah Museum of Natural History's "Chocolate Exhibit."

We learned a lot of amazing tidbits about chocolate and its history.

For example:

- Chocolate was once a frothy, spicy & exclusive libation of Aztec kings.
- Cacao beans were so valuable they were used as currency!

One of the amazing murals.

- Traces of chocolate dating back 1,200 years have been found in Utah.

Megan Curtice and Sophia Mannos

We all had a great time at the exhibit and the rest of the museum. Thanks to Event Chair Karen Anastasopoulos for another great PFA event!

OPA Camp!

Did you know that the Pan Arcadian Federation was the first Greek fraternal organization to volunteer to make lunch for the Opa campers when it first opened its door 16 years ago? Well, we were there again this year serving up our famous spaghetti!

Gus Huntington-Katis stirs the pot!

While the kids heard about the myth of Jason and the Argonauts, mastered a couple of traditional dances, and learned about the Holy Transfiguration, they also feasted on spaghetti, rolls, carrots, Capri Sun drinks, and chocolate chip cookies!

Kids enjoying lunch.

Thanks to everyone for making this another successful Opa Camp event.

Niko Huntington-Katis enlists his buddy Conner Karaiskos-Hasting to help

Hey! There are more photos of the PFA at Opa Camp as well as our trip to the Natural History Museum on our Facebook page.

Congratulations!

Jamie Cayias - Jaime received a Pan Arcadian Western District scholarship! She is the daughter of chapter members Connie and George Cayias, and the granddaughter of Bill and Sophia Drossos. Way to go, Jamie!

District Convention: At the Western District Convention, George Anastasopoulos was elected Convention Chairman, and we all know he did a great job! Meanwhile, newly-elected Governor James Rigopoulos appointed Karen Anastasopoulos the District's Scholarship Chairman. Congratulations to this dynamic duo!

DON'T FORGET OUR PICNIC!

And our next regular meeting is Sept. 16, 6:00 p.m. at The Other Place. See you there!
