President's Perspective

Good morning to all,

First of all, as we failed to have a quorum for this month's meeting, there was no business conducted.

Second, thanks to all who prepared things for our annual congregational meeting, everything from food to reports to those who were able to attend the meeting, many thanks.

As we wind down the year of 2018 and look ahead to 2019, may we look back with pride and satisfaction that our ministry and love has been spread out not only right here at Trinity but also sent out into the world.

For any council members who may be going off of council, thank you for a job well done. For any new members coming on to council, I look forward to working with each of you.

To my entire church family, thank you for being a light that is never hidden under a bushel. We are a powerful force to be reckoned with. I was just told by Mark Reedy, our Thrivent agent, that we are the poster child for Thrivent Action Teams because we are constantly using action dollars in the ministries of our church.

The Love of Christ runs deeply throughout Pittsburg Trinity Lutheran Church.

In His Name,
Dean

WERNLE "GIVING OF GIFTS"

Look for the snowglobe ornaments on the tree in the lobby for this year's Wernle residents "giving of gifts". Take one which will have ways that you may give. Get together with family and/or friends to complete one of the larger requests.

News

We are now 5 games into our season and besides having a great amount of fun, we are having good fellowship with members from many other churches in the area. At the end of week 5, we were in first place in the league by one game. There are 13 teams in the league and the top 6 are really close so a good or bad week can change things in a hurry.

All games are on Mondays, usually at 7:30 pm, and following is the December schedule — come to any game as a "cheerleader" for the team!

WELCA News for December

Dear Sisters in Christ,

Thanksgiving is over and it's time to get ready for Christmas. Whether you have a real tree in your home, an artificial Christmas tree, or maybe no tree; don't lose the true reason for the season. The Christmas season can get to be overwhelming at times. This holiday remember to take time to contemplate why we celebrate. One way I find that helps me to focus on Christ during Advent is to attend the Wednesday evening services. Let's prepare together for Christmas- Keep focused on Christ.

I would like to thank everyone who attended the Thank Offering Service. Special thanks to Donna for coming and selling items from Fair Trade Winds.

Our December meeting will be on Thursday December 6th at 6:30-8:30ish.

This is our annual Trinity WELCA Christmas celebration. Please note that this is on a Thursday night due to Advent Church services on Wednesdays.

Women are encouraged to bring an appetizer to share.

Each woman at Trinity is welcome to attend the monthly meetings and share in a time of fellowship and spiritual growth. Come on out and celebrate this season with your sisters here at Trinity.

Upcoming WELCA Events:

December 6th - Christmas Celebration
January 2nd - WELCA meeting

God Loves you and so do I!
PJ Musser-WELCA President

From our Pastor

⁶ Those who observe the day, observe it in honor of the Lord. (Rom. 14:6 NRS)

Seasons Greetings to you from God our Father and from the reason for the season our Lord Jesus Christ, amen.

As you read this article the “Christmas Season” will be well underway. In our society today, it actually started something around the end of August. At least that’s when I started to see Christmas decorations displayed in stores and Christmas gifts for sale pretty much everywhere. As I write this article today is Black Friday and this day is predicted by financial analysts not only to be the biggest and most profitable shopping day of the year, but also the biggest ever. By the standards of the world, this Christmas season will be a huge success!

Yes, Americans do love to shop. We love to give too. Primarily, that is the reason for all the shopping. We’re giving presents to our loved ones, our family and friends. Christmas is a season for giving. It is a season for giving. Christmas is the day when God gave us his only Son, the best Christmas present ever!

In his letter to the Church in Rome, Saint Paul wrote the words I quoted above about celebrations to pagan gods. Others may celebrate with food that was sacrificed to idols, but Christ followers celebrate in honor of our Lord, Jesus Christ. As we once again fill our already crowded calendars with holiday parties and family gatherings, as we feast on rich foods and as we buy way too much stuff, let us also remember why we’re doing all these things.

God didn’t withhold his very best from us. He sent us the best he had, his one and only Son. The creative force that was in the beginning with God, and was and is God, became flesh and lived among us. This so called Word of God came to serve, to teach, to heal, to love, and even to die for you. I can think of only one way to respond to that kind of unconditional love and that is to do exactly as Saint Paul described 2000 years ago in the letter to the Romans, by observing every single day of my life as a celebration honoring our Lord Jesus Christ.

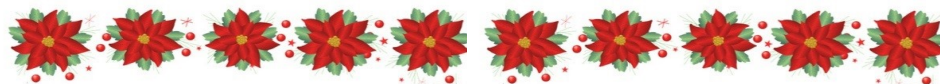

So, this year may you take time from those overly busy calendars to celebrate each day to honor the God who created you, the God who redeemed you, and the God who sustains you in the faith, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. May you have great joy in your giving this Christmas Season and may our God be honored by how His people serve and love both our God and our neighbors, amen.

Pr Mel

Red or white poinsettias for $14.00 each may be ordered for placement in the church in honor of a special event or in honor or memory of someone in your life. The deadline to order is December 2nd so please sign up as soon as possible or call Katherine Obringer at 423-2333.

Congratulations, Logan!

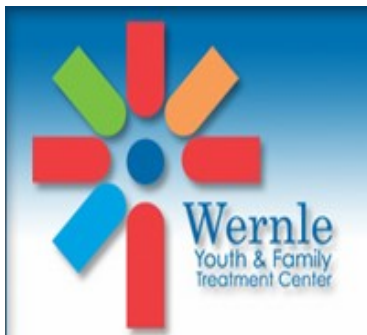

On October 27th at the 91st National FFA Convention held in Indianapolis, Indiana, Logan Ressler received the highest FFA honor, an American Degree. Only about 2% of FFA members accomplish this degree after high school. His mother Shannon says he has the best role models in his father, Kraig, and Grandfathers Dean Thompson and Ben Ressler who show him just how hard work can pay off.

Logan's job placement experiences were working with his family on the farm and at Keller Grain & Feed in Greenville where he logged more than 2,300 hours of work. Since graduating from high school, he has earned his associate degree in agriculture from Edison State, and is currently enrolled at Wright State where he will complete his bachelor's degree in agriculture.

Congratulations, Confirmands!

On Sunday, October 28, we celebrated Reformation Sunday along with the Confirmation of two of our youth—Emily Ann Campbell and Connor Raymond Jasinski. We welcome them into the membership of Trinity Evangelical Lutheran Church and vow to support them in all their future endeavors.

On Saturday, November 3, I attended the Dedication Service for the new Hawk Center and the 140th Year kickoff at Wernle Youth and Family Treatment Center. The service was so nice, with Bishop Dillahunt, Southern Ohio Synod, as well as Bishop Allende of the Northeast Ohio Synod, and Bishop Gafkjen of the Indiana/Kentucky Synod office, in attendance, as well as Pastors from the area. The meeting began with a message from Wernle President, Darrell Gordon, and the entire service was sprinkled with facts about Wernle. There was a beautiful choir and we celebrated Holy Communion together as well. After the service, we took a tour of the new Hawk Center, which is beautiful. It is full of natural light and peaceful colors, and is set up for efficient use of the space. It was mentioned that the 140-year-old building on the hill is set to be demolished in early 2019. Anyone is welcome to tour of the Hawk Center, which I highly recommend.

Julie Kossler

This year the "Giving of Gifts" for the residents at Wernle has changed. Look for the colorful snowglobe decorations on our Giving Tree for further instructions.

Holiday Pet Safety

The holiday season is upon us, and many pet parents plan to include their furry companions in the festivities. As you gear up for the holidays, it is important to try to keep your pet's eating and exercise habits as close to their normal routine as possible. Also, please be sure to steer pets clear of the following unhealthy treats, toxic plants and dangerous decorations.

Be Careful with Seasonal Plants and Decorations

- Oh, Christmas Tree: Securely anchor your Christmas tree so it doesn't tip and fall, causing possible injury to your pet. This will also prevent the tree water—which may contain fertilizers that can cause stomach upset—from spilling. Stagnant tree water is a breeding ground for bacteria, and your pet could end up with nausea or diarrhea.
- Avoid Mistletoe & Holly: Holly, when ingested, can cause pets to suffer nausea, vomiting and diarrhea. Mistletoe can cause gastrointestinal upset and cardiovascular problems. And many varieties of lilies can cause kidney failure in cats if ingested. Opt for just-as-jolly artificial plants made from silk or plastic, or choose a pet-safe bouquet.
- Tinsel-less Town: Kitties love this sparkly, light-catching "toy" that's easy to bat around and carry in their mouths. But a nibble can lead to a swallow, which can lead to an obstructed digestive tract, severe vomiting, dehydration and possible surgery. It's best to brighten your boughs with something other than tinsel.
- That Holiday Glow: Don't leave lighted candles unattended. Pets may burn themselves or cause a fire if they knock candles over. Be sure to use appropriate candle holders, placed on a stable surface. And if you leave the room, put the candle out!
- Wired Up: Keep wires, batteries and glass or plastic ornaments out of paws' reach. A wire can deliver a potentially lethal electrical shock and a punctured battery can cause burns to the mouth and esophagus, while shards of breakable ornaments can damage your pet's mouth and digestive tract.

Avoid Holiday Food Dangers

- Skip the Sweets: By now you know not to feed your pets chocolate and anything sweetened with xylitol, but do you know the lengths to which an enterprising pet will go to chomp on something yummy? Make sure to keep your pets away from the table and unattended plates of food, and be sure to secure the lids on garbage cans.
- Leave the Leftovers: Fatty, spicy and no-no human foods, as well as bones, should not be fed to your furry friends. Pets can join the festivities in other fun ways that won't lead to costly medical bills.
- Careful with Cocktails: If your celebration includes adult holiday beverages, be sure to place your unattended alcoholic drinks where pets cannot get to them. If ingested, your pet could become weak, ill and may even go into a coma, possibly resulting in death from respiratory failure.
- Selecting Special Treats: Looking to stuff your pet's stockings? Stick with chew toys that are basically indestructible, Kongs that can be stuffed with healthy foods or chew treats that are designed to be safely digestible. Long, stringy things are a feline's dream, but the most risky toys for cats involve ribbon, yarn and loose little parts that can get stuck in the intestines, often necessitating surgery. Surprise kitty with a new ball that's too big to swallow, a stuffed catnip toy or the interactive cat dancer.

As you count down to the new year, please keep in mind that strings of thrown confetti can get lodged in a cat's intestines, if ingested, perhaps necessitating surgery. Noisy poppers can terrify pets and cause possible damage to sensitive ears. And remember that many pets are also scared of fireworks, so be sure to secure them in a safe, escape-proof area as midnight approaches.

Please have a joyful holiday season and remember to keep your pets safe!!!

December Health Tips

Health Ministries

When & How to Wash Your Hands

Keeping hands clean through improved hand hygiene is one of the most important steps we can take to avoid getting sick and spreading germs to others. Many diseases and conditions are spread by not washing hands with soap and clean, running water. If clean, running water is not accessible, as is common in many parts of the world, use soap and available water. If soap and water are unavailable, use an alcohol-based hand sanitizer that contains at least 60% alcohol.

When Should You Wash Your Hands?

- Before, during, and after preparing food
- Before eating food
- Before and after caring for someone who is sick
- Before and after treating a cut or wound
- After using the toilet
- After changing diapers or cleaning up a child who has used the toilet
- After blowing your nose, coughing, or sneezing
- After touching an animal, animal feed, or animal waste
- After handling pet food or pet treats
- After touching garbage

How Should You Wash Your Hands?

Wet your hands with clean, running water (warm or cold), turn off the tap, and apply soap.

Lather your hands by rubbing them together with the soap. Be sure to lather the backs of your hands, between your fingers, and under your nails.

Scrub your hands for at least 20 seconds. Need a timer? Hum the “Happy Birthday” song from beginning to end twice.

Rinse your hands well under clean, running water.

Dry your hands using a clean towel or air dry them.

Hand sanitizers are not as effective when hands are visibly dirty or greasy.

How do you use hand sanitizers?

Apply the product to the palm of one hand (read the label to learn the correct amount).

Rub your hands together.

Rub the product over all surfaces of your hands and fingers until your hands are dry.

God's Provision!

Last spring, Ana*, a national from a nearby closed country contacted our team asking if she could attend our Bible translation training. Sadly, we told her we had no more full scholarships available. Sensing God's call, this courageous young woman flew to Thailand anyway, knowing that she did not have sufficient funds to complete the three-year program.

In October, a banker from a different nearby country came to visit our team. During his visit, he and his wife learned more about our program, and we got to introduce them to Ana. The couple agreed to fund four Bible translation students and asked Ana to be one of the first to apply.

- Praise God for His provision and the ways He calls his GLOBAL church to work together. So far the scholarship sponsor and the first three applicants come from four different Asian countries.
- Pray for discernment as our team continues to work out details for incoming 2019 students.

We are very aware this month of how much we have to be thankful to God for. Among the list is all of YOU who continue to be a part of this journey.

Praises & Requests...

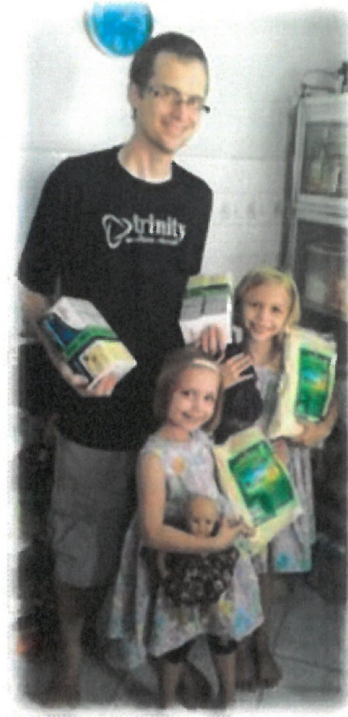

Torn Calf (LEFT)

Ivy tore a calf muscle five weeks ago. She's off crutches, but still unable to drive or walk quickly. Please pray for complete healing of her leg and for patience as we wait. If you know Ivy, you know sitting on the couch peacefully has never been one of her spiritual gifts. :)

Thanksgiving Outreach (RIGHT)

Our church will be joining us for Thanksgiving. Our pastor's wife warned us to be prepared to host 40 hungry teens! Pray that Jesus will be the focus of this outreach and fellowship.

Many Thais get nervous over the idea of eating turkey, similarly to how many Americans may feel about eating a monkey! To make dinner more palatable, we're opting for chicken alfredo and apple cheesecake!)

Wanting to Attend Church

Some parents in our neighborhood have asked their teens to stop attending church so the kids can find jobs and earn money on Sunday mornings. We hired a few of these teens to make Christmas cards for our family. Soon others in the community began requesting various cards, giving the teens a small side-business and an excuse to keep attending church. Praise God!

I will tell of all the marvelous things you have done.*
