As most of you who have attended this event know, this is a little town in the Ozarks that LOVES EARA and do all they can to promote this event. We get some folks down from Missouri and lots of pilgrims. And it is always a great event. So come on out to this event if you are able. I can guarantee you will have a great time. The little town has great shops and places to eat and the BAKERY there is just absolutely awesome! They bake in a real stone oven and all kinds of goodies for your delight! Looking forward to seeing you there!!!!

DON'T BLAME ME!!!!

Okay, guys, don't blame me cause there's nothing much "new" in the ST cause NO ONE AIN'T SENT ME NUTHIN for the newsletter. I'm feeling like a one man band here guys!!!! Send me your new articles!

THE PICK-A-NICK

We had a good crowd, good food and good fellowship at the pick-a-nick at Cadron park. I hadn't ever been up the road to the mountain and we used a different pavilion up on the hill instead of the one by the block house which is the only place I'd ever been in that park, and it was nice, with an overview of the river and a nice breeze on a hot day.

As a few of us were standing around yapping after the crowd had left, some guys with a boat pulled up to the TOP OF THE HILL and we told them there's no boat ramp here unless you have a FLYING BOAT to fly off the mountain top. LOL

Our elections will be coming up for officers in January and PRESIDENT GLENN COOK announced he will be stepping down as prez...I am still distraught at that announcement, but I do understand. Glenn has in my opinion revitalized the office and the group. But I also know that he has contributed so much for so long, that it's time to give him a bit of a rest. But it is members like him that make our club great and our events fun!

I read an article recently about ALL re-enactor type groups are becoming "elderly" and not having a lot of new and younger blood in them and many are dying off because of that as older members become unable to fully participate. EARA has, I think, worked toward keeping this from happening in our group. We have elected some new and younger members on our board of Directors and encouraged members of the public to join and become part of the group. It isn't "just" Glenn that has worked hard to keep our group going ahead full steam but a core group who have worked HARD to keep the events fun and ongoing. THANK YOU GLENN for your service!!!! You have gone above and beyond in your tenure in office with humility, kindness, caring and commitment to all things EARA. Your wisdom and ability in guiding the group have been appreciated by many many members.
