What does the Bible say about faith? Persistence? Worry? Being a good friend? What Bible stories best illustrate the Christian traits we want children to develop, and where are they located in the Bible? What are the best scriptures that speak on the subject? And finally, what messages about it are most valuable for kids? Bible Virtues At-a-Glance are a plethora of wealth with many uses-and all subjects come with worksheets to help kids reflect and learn. The series is a definite staple for any teacher's learning library.

INTRODUCTION

Welcome to Bible Virtues At-a-Glance, another exciting addition to our At-a-Glance Library to make both teaching and learning the Word of God easier by far!

This series contains 20 of the most popular topics, or subjects, teachers like to share with children-and a plethora of information about each! Subjects include faith, generosity, humility, love, worry, fear, and many others. It takes you by the hand to help you get a nice overview what the Bible says about each.

What on Each Sheet

Each sheet provides similar information on each subject:

The first time the subject appears in the Bible, as well as the last time: It's fun to see how a word evolves over the 4,000 years in which the Bible was written. Faith and love, for example were more greatly emphasized in the New Testament, however the path was laid from the very beginning! Some subjects may have been mentioned earlier or later, but you'll be getting the first and last definitive mentions of the subject in the Bible.

Most Noteworthy Bible Passages: Three Old Testament scriptures and three from the New Testament give the most telling readings on each subject for children. A range of research was used, including a site listing most commonly-surfed verses and subjects, as well as concordances and topical Bibles.

What God wants children to know about each subject delves briefly into how each subject is important to everyday living, as well as how each can be misunderstood.

Stories and passages showing this subject will tell you what Bible passages best exemplify each subject, including Old Testament hero stories, the parables of Jesus, and more. You will be given chapters and verses to help you find them.

Student worksheets on each subject are designed to do one of several things: Some require the children work or play with the words in a verse, such that at the end they will likely know it! Others will get children to reflect on the overview of what the subject means to them. Coloring pages complete with verses and other drawing activities accomplish that well. Word searches will help children understand the meaning of either hard subjects like “perseverance,” and many expose them to several scriptures instead of just one.

Ways to Use this Package

There are so many ways to use Bible Virtues At-a-Glance, and here are just some:

If you realize your students collectively need help with one or more subjects, simply work with a cheat sheet and worksheet to get them understand much more about it.

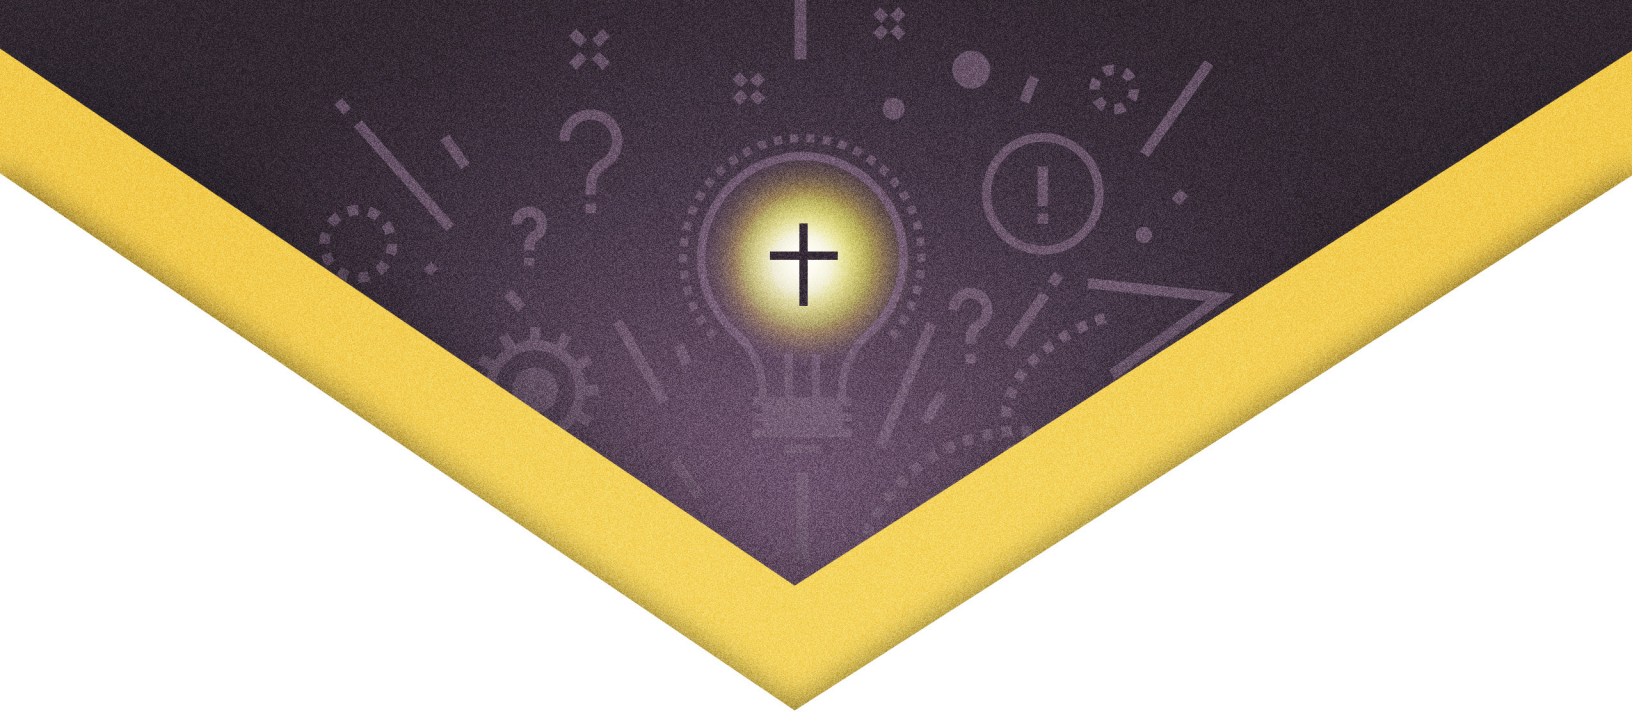

If you want to do a series on Christian virtues, the Cheat Sheet subjects run parallel to the most well-known ones! Use the cheat sheets to find all the verses and themes you’ll need. Use the worksheets for reinforcements.

Teach Bible stories in enlightening new ways: Regardless of what you are teaching, these Bible subjects can shed more light on characters and situations. Use our index to find out on what sheets your Bible stories are covered.

Use for series interludes or for help on a slow day. Students can play games with the Bible verses, have lookup relays, or hold general discussions on what situations in their lives will benefit by the subject. The wealth of scriptures will prepare them for the week and for the distant future as well!

What’s Most Important

A series like Bible Virtues At-a-Glance will help children understand what the Bible says that’s most important about the most common subjects on which the Bible speaks. The series will have a special way of speaking to everyone, regardless of the challenges children face at home, in school, or in their spiritual walks with God.

God's Important Messages about Optimism:

It is great to be optimistic, so long as our optimism rests in God and not in our own strengths, and as long as we are pursuing his will with belief that he will help us. Our country is starting to become wise to messages like "you can achieve anything you set your mind to." In truth, we only need to achieve one thing to be successful, and that is his will. And that is where we will find the most joy.

- 1 Corinthians 2:9: "Eye has not seen, nor ear heard, nor have entered into the heart of man the things which God has prepared for those who love Him."

“

God's Important Messages about Hope:

Children can put a great deal of hope in God's help, God's future, God's rescues, etc., but they need to be taught. Once taught, it is great fun to watch them hope because their imaginations are much stronger than adults', and they have far less difficulty imagining things they are hoping for.

BIBLE STORIES SHOWING HOPE:

- In Genesis 6, Noah builds the ark out of hope for his family's future.
- Abraham built two altars based on a promise from God, in Genesis 12:8 and 13:4, because of the hope he had in God's word.
- David gave God his promise to build a temple. Though it was not completed in his lifetime, he had hope in his son Solomon. His prayer is in 2 Samuel 7.
- Some great Psalms of hope include Psalms 30, 31, 39 and 42.
- Pentecost is a great story of hope in the future and hope coming to fruition. Located in Acts 2, it tells of the disciples gaining the great understanding promised to them, but also looking into a future of uncertainty but with the promised hope of the Kingdom of Heaven.

THREE VERY IMPORTANT NEW TESTAMENT SCRIPTURES ON THIS SUBJECT:

- Matthew 22:37-39: Jesus replied: "'Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind.' This is the first and greatest commandment. 39 And the second is like it: 'Love your neighbor as yourself. All the Law and the Prophets hang on these two commandments.'
- Luke 6:32: If you love those who love you, what credit is that to you? Even sinners love those who love them. Change in the subject's nature from the Old and New Testament:
- John 3:16: For God so loved the world that he gave his one and only Son, that whoever believes in him shall not perish but have eternal life.

“

God's Important Messages about Love:

God does not ever stop loving his children. He may be disappointed and correct them but he will never desert or forsake his children.

God's love is bigger and better than our human love. Our love only wants to extend itself to those we find easy to love, like family members and friends. God's love will extend to those who are not easy to love and who are not acting loving toward us.

BIBLE STORIES SHOWING LOVE:

- Luke 15 is a great resource for God's Love, containing both the Parable of the Lost Sheep (Luke 15:3-7), The Prodigal Son (Luke 15:11-32). The Parable of the Lost Coin, a lesser known parable about God's love, falls between the two (Luke 15:8-10).
- Of course the ultimate story of love is Jesus' death on the cross. However, the explanations provided are in other passages that aren't imbedded in the story. John 3 contains not only the "God so loved the world" famous verse (16) but many others that bring understanding about the depths of God's love.

- Luke 12:25: Who of you by worrying can add a single hour to your life?

God's Important Messages about Worry:

Children tend to worry more than adults realize. Because they don't often understand the boundaries of reality, they are often afraid of more things than they need be. Comforting words from Jesus and God can likewise be more healing to them than adults realize. Words of divine protection, comfort and security will not go back void.

BIBLE STORIES SHOWING WORRY:

- In Exodus 3 and 4, we see Moses giving God a list of reasons why he should not be the one to go to Pharaoh. He was worried that he wasn't a good public speaker, he was worried about his past. God knew that Moses would lead the Israelites out of captivity. All Moses had to do was believe and go.
- In Matthew 6, Jesus has exacting words about why we should cease to worry in verses 25-34.
- Deborah's instant and easy agreement to go into battle with her commander shows a great example of faith over fear in Judges 4. Deborah's whole story is the chapter and is grand.

- James 1:4: Let perseverance finish its work so that you may be mature and complete, not lacking anything.

“

God's Important Messages about Perseverance:

Children who learn determination and perseverance will have an easier time throughout their schooling. Schooling is a great training ground for adult faith and the perseverance needed.

We all need perseverance, because God allows everyone to go through periods of testing, waiting, and not knowing. It is a big part of building faith. When children come into tough periods, they should decide whether these could, in fact, be tests of either faith or endurance, through which they need to persevere.

BIBLE STORIES SHOWING PERSERVERANCE:

- 2 Corinthians 4 describes the challenges that Paul faced in his ministry and how he persevered. Paul is an excellent example of perseverance because he was stoned, imprisoned for his faith, and persecuted in many other ways.
- Joshua 10 & 11 show the great perseverance of Joshua's army. After being stalled out in the desert for 40 years, Israel had to go out in battle and earn their future land. Joshua defeated 31 kings or kingdoms according to these chapters.

God's Important Messages about Courage:

We are very busy teaching children to be respectful and not bully or be aggressive. But we don't want messages of courage to be left behind. While we teach turning the other cheek, we must reassure that this and other peace gestures are not signs of weakness.

BIBLE STORIES SHOWING COURAGE:

- The end of Deuteronomy and the book of Joshua tell the story of Joshua taking over for Moses. Joshua is a good example of courage because God led him into many situations which seemed impossible, like bringing down the walls of Jericho, but Joshua had courage and fulfilled his mission to lead the Israelites into the Promised Land!
- In Judges 7, Gideon took on a huge army with only 300 men as a tremendous show of courage and faith.

THREE VERY IMPORTANT OLD TESTAMENT SCRIPTURES ON THIS SUBJECT:

- Exodus 33:19: And the LORD said, "I will cause all my goodness to pass in front of you, and I will proclaim my name, the LORD, in your presence. I will have mercy on whom I will have mercy, and I will have compassion on whom I will have compassion."

THREE VERY IMPORTANT NEW TESTAMENT SCRIPTURES ON THIS SUBJECT:

- Hebrews 4:16: Let us then approach God's throne of grace with confidence, so that we may receive mercy and find grace to help us in our time of need.
- Matthew 9:13: But go and learn what this means: 'I desire mercy, not sacrifice.' For I have not come to call the righteous, but sinners.
- Ephesians 2:4-5: But because of his great love for us, God, who is rich in mercy, made us alive with Christ even when we were dead in transgressions—it is by grace you have been saved.

God's Important Messages about Mercy:

Mercy and justice are seen as types of opposites in the Bible. The Old Testament focuses on justice (an eye for an eye); however, Jesus changed the world with his messages of mercy (forgive 70 times seven times). Children will often try to seek justice on their own. Hence messages of "revenge is mine, says the Lord" should be given often.

BIBLE STORIES SHOWING MERCY:

- 1 Samuel 24 tells the story of David sparing King Saul's life. Saul had been hunting David and trying to kill him for years. When David finally had the opportunity to kill Saul, he didn't.
- Joseph had profound mercy on his 10 brothers after they sold him into slavery. Years later when he recognized them, he gave them land and food and much of his kingdom. The story begins in Genesis 37 and threads through to the end of the book.

- James 1:19: My dear brothers and sisters, take note of this: Everyone should be quick to listen, slow to speak and slow to become angry.

God’s Important Messages about Anger:

Nearly all sins committed show some degree of emotions not being checked. A very important lesson for today is “faith first, facts second, and feelings third.” With the reduction of faith in our society, feelings are rising to almost become facts. And yet they are much more likely to lead us astray than faith or facts.

BIBLE STORIES SHOWING ANGER:

- The classic example of anger gone awry is the Cain and Abel story found in Genesis 4.
- A second example is Moses murdering the Egyptian, for which he was banished to the desert for more than 40 years. (Exodus 2:11-14)
- Jonah 4 is a good example of the kind of anger Christians should avoid (as opposed to righteous anger). Jonah became angry with God because of his mercy toward the Ninevites. Jonah’s anger did not produce good fruit and, as we all know, did not send him in the right direction.

- Romans 12:12: Be joyful in hope, patient in affliction, faithful in prayer.

God's Important Messages about Patience:

Waiting is part of living. God generally takes longer to bring his will to fruition than we mortals think it will take. It may have been 100 years between God's first conversations with Noah and the actual Flood. Moses waited until he was 80 to begin the Exodus. David had to run, hide, and live in caves for many years before becoming king. Even Jesus had to wait 30 years before showing any miraculous powers and wisdom.

BIBLE STORIES SHOWING PATIENCE:

- The book of Job is the perfect example for patience. It where we get the phrase “patience of Job” from! Job suffered many afflictions and refused to question God. In the end he was blessed with gifts beyond all that he lost, many times over!
- If patience were not critical, we would not be waiting 2,000 years for the return of the Messiah.

Name three situations where you want more patience:

SELF-CONTROL/ DISCIPLINE

AT-A-GLANCE

FIRST

First time the subject appears in the Bible:

Proverbs 16:32: Better a patient person than a warrior, one with self-control than one who takes a city.

LAST

Last time the subject appears in the Bible:

2 Peter 1:6: and to knowledge, self-control; and to self-control, perseverance; and to perseverance, godliness;

THREE VERY IMPORTANT OLD TESTAMENT SCRIPTURES ON THIS SUBJECT:

- Proverbs 18:21: The tongue has the power of life and death, and those who love it will eat its fruit.
- Proverbs 25:28: Like a city whose walls are broken through is a person who lacks self-control.
- Proverbs 29:11: Fools give full vent to their rage, but the wise bring calm in the end.

THREE VERY IMPORTANT NEW TESTAMENT SCRIPTURES ON THIS SUBJECT:

- 2 Timothy 1:7: For the Spirit God gave us does not make us timid, but gives us power, love and self-discipline.
- Galatians 5:22-23: But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, forbearance, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness and self-control. Against such things there is no law.
- Romans 12:2: Do not conform to the pattern of this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind. Then you will be able to test and approve what God's will is—his good, pleasing and perfect will.

God's Important Messages about Self-Control/Discipline:

The need for self-control starts almost as soon as a child can communicate. Lessons in self-control will prevent younger children from snatching and hitting, and older children from spreading gossip, succumbing to peer pressure, and lying. Self-control is the forerunner of most choices.

BIBLE STORIES SHOWING SELF-CONTROL/DISCIPLINE:

- Luke 4:1-13 tells the story of Jesus in the wilderness. This is a good example of self-control because Jesus knew that God would meet his needs but still felt tempted by human desires. The fact that he stood up to the devil when the devil tried to tempt him stands as proof of his faith and self-control.
- Cain showed a lack of self-control in killing Abel in Genesis 4.
- Jonah showed a lack of self-control in disobeying God in Jonah 1-2.
