* September 12, 2021 - 24th Sunday in Ordinary Time

"Whoever wishes to come after me must deny himself, take up his cross, and follow me." (Mark 8:34)

Living a stewardship lifestyle means not only being responsible for my own life, but for the lives of others as well. We realize that our gifts are not intended for ourselves, rather they are meant to be shared with others. "Taking up my cross" means doing things when someone else needs me and not when it's convenient for me.

24th Sunday in Ordinary Time B – September 12th, 2021

* Bishop LeGatt Video Message – Reflecting on our COVID-10 beliefs

This week, Archbishop Albert reflects on the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic, and the fourth wave we are currently experiencing. Issues such as vaccination and other public health measures have greatly divided people, and as such, Archbishop Albert invites us to take a moment to reflect not only on what we believe, but on why we believe it. Truly, God calls us to charity and love for one another, and he calls us to do everything we can to promote the wellbeing of others, especially the vulnerable and marginalized. As such, the Archdiocese of Saint-Boniface continues to cooperate with provincial regulations, voluntarily, for the wellbeing of all. However, he also clarifies in this video that the Church will never require proof of vaccination upon entry into a church. Let us continue to work together, in open, charitable dialogue, to find the common good, and journey together towards God. Let us walk together, and carry one another.

 Marriage Tips

Unemployment can put stress on a marriage – and it's not just about the money. Questions may arise like: what value am I to my family or our society? If your spouse is job hunting or underemployed be gentle and be present for him/her. Pray for those who need work.

24th Sunday in Ordinary Time B – September 12th, 2021

“Education is simply the soul of a society as it passes from one generation to another” – G.K. Chesterton

Let us pray: At the beginning of this new school year, in this time of uncertainty and anxiety, Lord, we implore your mercy. Bless and protect our students, teachers, staffs, and their families. Bless all those who care for us in school, and at home. In these days when so much has changed, help us to trust in the love of your Son Jesus, our Divine Teacher, who is the same yesterday, today, and forever. Amen.

To all students, teachers, school staffs, and their families, I wish you all a great school year. I keep you all in my prayers!

Fr. Peter Le
