

Oh, God! Thank You

To you, God, I give Honor and Glory
To you my days are but a speck...
And yet, you spared my life
That night when it should've been gory.
I walked away from the wreck...
Oh, God! Thank you.

So inadequate my words...
To show my gratitude for the life you spared
My heart swells with emotion
All I can Say—my incessant utterance knowing how much You Cared—
O God! Thank You.
