DEVON 23

AREA MAP 30

SOMERSET 41

Hello antiques hunters! And welcome to The Antiques Tourist 2022!

We are delighted to introduce our great publication, in post-pandemic format.....all the usual shops, warehouses, centres and yards to visit, plus a great offering of NEW venues and FAIRS!

On pages 5 & 6, our antiques “road trip” this year covers the lovely county of Dorset. Please read this for a few hints and insider tips as you explore Dorset!. To help you find all the businesses more easily, we have introduced an INDEX on Page 4, plus our usual centre-spread map across pages 29 & 30. Both formats show all venues, in alphabetical order.

The “trade” has such a variety of business models including, sadly some very “hit-and-miss” operators. The Antiques Tourist has worked very hard this year to show-case the BEST on offer across Dorset, Devon and Somerset. In this publication we feature the strong, professional, progressive, and forward-thinking traders, who are promoting themselves as unique venues, offering great, well displayed stock, at competitive prices, with regular and reliable trading hours. We hope that you, our reader (and their potential customer) agree.

Best wishes and good hunting,

Anthony Bucke EDITOR. Tuesday 8th February 2022

TIME FOR A TRIP AROUND THE COUNTY OF

DORSET

Our antiques road trip this year features the glorious and historic county of Dorset. Home to among others, Thomas Hardy, The Cerne Giant and the Jurassic Coast.

We started at The Den – a vintage warehouse between Poole and Bournemouth open 7 days a week. Being romantics, we chose the chain-ferry from the millionaire's row at Sandbanks to Purbeck. For 2022 the ferry seems to be running in either direction at 30 minute intervals, and costs £1 per head for foot passengers, or £4.75 for a car. The journey takes a mere 4 minutes!

Head for High Street, Swanage, and the delightful Old Forge Antiques Centre, open 7 days a week. Then inland to Dorset Reclamation at Bere Regis, offering good salvage and interior design ideas. Head north to The Old Grain Store at Blandford. Definitely a work in progress, but some vintage bargains to be had. Semley, a village north of Shaftesbury offers 2 antiques centres, Kingsettle and Dairy House. This combination of 2 really good centres, offers a fantastic choice for discerning buyers. Continue northwards along the A350 to Warminster, and Grace Decorative in Chinns Court, just off Weymouth Street, for interiors and clothing.

Return along the A350 to Shaftesbury, then head west on the A30, next stop Sherborne, and the wonderful Sherborne Abbey. It is worth spending time walking around and admiring the Abbey and Grounds. Close to the abbey in Half Moon Street find Guy Dennler – top-end antiques. Move into Cheap Street for food, drink and interiors at D'Urbervilles. Then up the pedestrianised Cheap Street to McAndrew Art and Lemon. Next door is Sherborne Antiques Market – home to 42 dealers. Near the top of Cheap Street, on the left is Artichoke, country interiors and decorative. And in Acreman Street, find Acreman Street Antiques and Monthly Auctions.

Take the Piddle Valley (true!) south to The Vintage Tool Shed, at Carters Barn Farm, Piddlehinton. A wonderful selection of woodworking and hand tools.

Follow on to the County Town, Dorchester. Entering from Greys Bridge, the first on the right is De Dannan, an interesting collection of antiques and vintage. Then Martin Green Interiors, adjacent to The County Museum in High West Street. A lovely shop with some great antiques and furnishing pieces. Last stop in Dorchester is Dorchester Curiosity Centre.

A good warehouse for vintage, collectables and exciting finds!

Then the coast and Abbotsbury, for The Clock Workshop, fine antiques, clocks and furniture.

Following the coast road westwards to Bridport, offers a marvelous spectacle of the Jurassic coast. Pause at the top of Abbotsbury Hill, and look back over St Catherines Chapel and The Fleet Water with The Isle of Portland rising in the background. (There is normally an ice-cream vendor in the layby). Heading west, the Jurassic Coast lies before you, visible on a clear day for its full length as far as Start Point, in South Devon.

Drop into West Bay for The Customs House, close to the historic harbour. Bridport is a bit of a “mecca” for antiques and vintage. Find Jurassic Reclamation on the bypass. Moving into town, the artisan trading area is at St Andrews Trading Estate, where you will find Fiona Neyland Millinery, Tina's Retro Clothing, and The Alleyways for antiques and vintage. Just round the corner, you will find Global Art & Antiques – and “fine art forger” Billy Mumford.

Almost next door, Ruby in The Dust has a lovely collection of carefully curated furniture and decorative items. In West Street find Bridport Antiques.

Bridport Street Market is one of the oldest surviving street markets in England, operating every Wednesday and Saturday in East Street, West Street and South Street.

Leaving Bridport, cross our glorious countryside through Beaminster and Evershot to Wardon Hill Trading Post, near the lovely Frome Valley.

This route is simply our suggestion. We have chosen it in order to take the reader through the full variety of our glorious Dorset countryside. Parts of the trail may be taken in isolation. Parts may be omitted all together. It really depends on your starting point and where you wish to end up. We have not taken into account the opening hours at each venue.

All the information we have provided is correct at the time of writing – February 2022.

I really hope that you enjoy this road trip!

Anthony Bucke Editor.

CELEBRITY FORGER RETURNS TO BRIDPORT

Sat 5th and Sunday 6th of MARCH 2022 Billy Mumford the celebrity TV art forger is to make a return appearance at Global Art Gallery next to Ocean Bathrooms at St Michael's trading estate Bridport on Saturday and Sunday 5th and 6th of March from 11am to 3pm both days. We look forward to welcoming customers new and old.

For those of you who have not yet visited the gallery on St Michaels estate and been enthralled by the narrative of Billy's escapades as told by his close friend and gallery owner James Hartey, you are missing a rare treat.

Billy Mumford's large on sale 'Going Straight' exhibition arrived in Bridport in May last year. Since then, there has been spectacular interest and sales of his work to the extent that Mr Hartey's collection of 6 years has seen half of it sold within 12 weeks and mostly to appreciative Bridport residents and their friends.

Billy's work has been snapped up by Aristocrats, Celebrities and Millionaires but it is his sales to locals that excites Billy the most. Many people come to the gallery without a reason to buy a painting, but Billy's story ignites excitement within them to the extent that they return with friends and family to repeat the experience, this in turn gives Billy the most satisfaction.

Recently Catherine Zeta Jones purchased a Picasso and John Terry the ex -England and Chelsea player has purchased several of Billy's works too. As a thing of beauty on a wall at home, his work comes alive but there is also a huge investment potential involved with the scarcity of Billy's work increasing daily.

James Hartey the Gallery owner has written a book about Billy's life and at his previous gallery, which was tucked away upstairs at an antiques centre, he sold 17 copies in a year. So far in the last 12 weeks he has sold 180 copies and has had to initiate a further run of 200 more. The books are signed by Billy and James and the Paintings come with a certificate authenticating a genuine Billy Mumford Forgery.

Billy and James look forward to welcoming and chatting to current buyers and collectors as well as new friends who are curious to see what all the fuss is about.

Bath Decorative Antiques Fair returns to its traditional Spring Date! 1st - 3rd April 2022.

After more than 30 successful years at The Pavilion, Bath Decorative Antiques Fair celebrates a return to its traditional Spring season in 2022 to celebrate antiques and c.20th design for the home and garden. In view of the season, garden antiques will be a focus when exhibitors converge on the Georgian City to deck their stands with expertly curated displays of decorative and country house antiques and garden ornaments for both inside and outside the home. Around 50 exhibitors will reveal stock saved for this important fixture in the fairs calendar. Expect to see English, French and Nordic antiques and design – large painted cabinets, exquisite model chateaux, chateau furniture, imposing cast iron urns and benches for the garden and conservatory, huge farmhouse tables, rustic oak furniture, refined cosmopolitan furniture for the City dweller, library furniture for the essential home office, architectural elements, lighting, luxurious antique textiles and rugs from Asia and the Levant, folk art, mirrors, early glass and English and Continental pottery with a broad range of art from period portraits to Modern & Contemporary by renowned artists.
