Book of Life

Once again, our Book of Life is in front of church this month, the month dedicated to those who have gone before us in death. You are invited to enter the names of deceased loved ones in the Book. During November, we will remember in a special way those whose names are entered in the Book of Life. "Eternal rest, grant unto them O Lord, and let Perpetual Light shine upon them."

Marriage Banns

Please join us in praying for Derek Hoffman & Riley Worzella who are preparing for the Sacrament of Matrimony. Their marriage will take place on November 12th.

Pledges for Capital Campaign

In order to count for the capital campaign, pledges have to be in by Nov. 18.

We know that some people do not want to fill out a pledge card. After discussing this with our campaign representative, this is an alternative he gave us: In this situation the parish would fill in a pledge card labeled anonymous or attach a note that explains this is from an anonymous donor. The parishioner would pay the parish directly. (Make out the check to St. Joseph Parish). The parish then makes out a check to the Diocese using a blank pledge card with the word anonymous donor on it.

If you would like make your payments this way, please let Father Gus or Mary Uttecht.

Please remove all decorations from graves in the cemetery for the winter months by November 15. Please inform family and friends that are not members of the parish. Thank you!

Baptism

Welcome: Holly Mae Groeschel

Daughter of Sarah (Kulas) & Nick Groeschel who was welcomed in the Church through the Sacrament of Baptism on November 5

Congratulations! We pray she grows in the faith.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS: The God of the Living

"Sic transit gloria mundi," is what they used to say at papal coronations. "So passes earthly glory." Everything is fleeting. Nothing is here to stay. But in reality, some things are forever. Our actions on earth do have the potential to reverberate in eternity.

Everyday Stewardship is a lifestyle that embraces what will last. It is being aware of how our choices and our actions can be received by God, and through His grace, amplified to showcase His glory.

Your great-grandparents were married for 60 years. Maybe they shared the greatest love anyone in your family has ever seen, and maybe they raised up a whole family of kids. But they've been gone for a generation now, and no one living remembers the softness in their eyes when they looked at each other. And to read today's Gospel, you might even get the impression that their marriage was nothing more than an earthly whim. Gone. Fleeting. Temporal.

This week's readings invite us to contemplate the question: what exactly is immortal? What lasts beyond our earthly sojourn?

The seven brothers and their mothers whose martyrdom is told this weekend in Maccabees didn't die for the letter of the law, they died for the One who gave the law. In the same way, a marriage contract does not extend into eternity, but the fruits of a sacrificial love will live forever.

Good works, devotion, gratitude, selflessness, graciousness, accountability — these are all of God. He is not God of the dead; He is God of the living — and these are the things that last an eternity.

— Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS
