"The nature of water is soft, and the nature of stone is hard; but if a bottle is hung above the stone, allowing the water to fall down drop by drop, it wears away the stone. So it is with the Word of God: it is soft and our heart is hard, but the man who hears the Word of God often, opens his heart to the fear of God." - St. Poemen

Today the United States Celebrates Father's Day. I wish all of our fathers, whether they be physical fathers or our spiritual fathers, a good, happy, and restful day. For our fathers who have gone before us, may the Lord have mercy upon them, and may they soon see the Lord face to face.

Dear Lord, I am a father on earth. You have given me this gift and responsibility; grant me the wisdom to carry it out. Let my fatherhood be one of encouragement and support, not of expectations and control. Let me protect my children, but not too much; advise them, but just a little. Let me respect them as individuals, not as an extension of myself. Let me be honest about my feelings toward them – including my anger, disappointment, hurt, excitement, joy, and love. Let me be firm without dominating them. Let me be sensitive to their feelings without trying to change them. Let me be there for them when they need me and get out of their way when they don't. Let me offer them the roots of belonging and the wings of freedom. Help me, Lord, to be a father on earth. Amen.

(A Father's Prayer)
