

The Story

of The

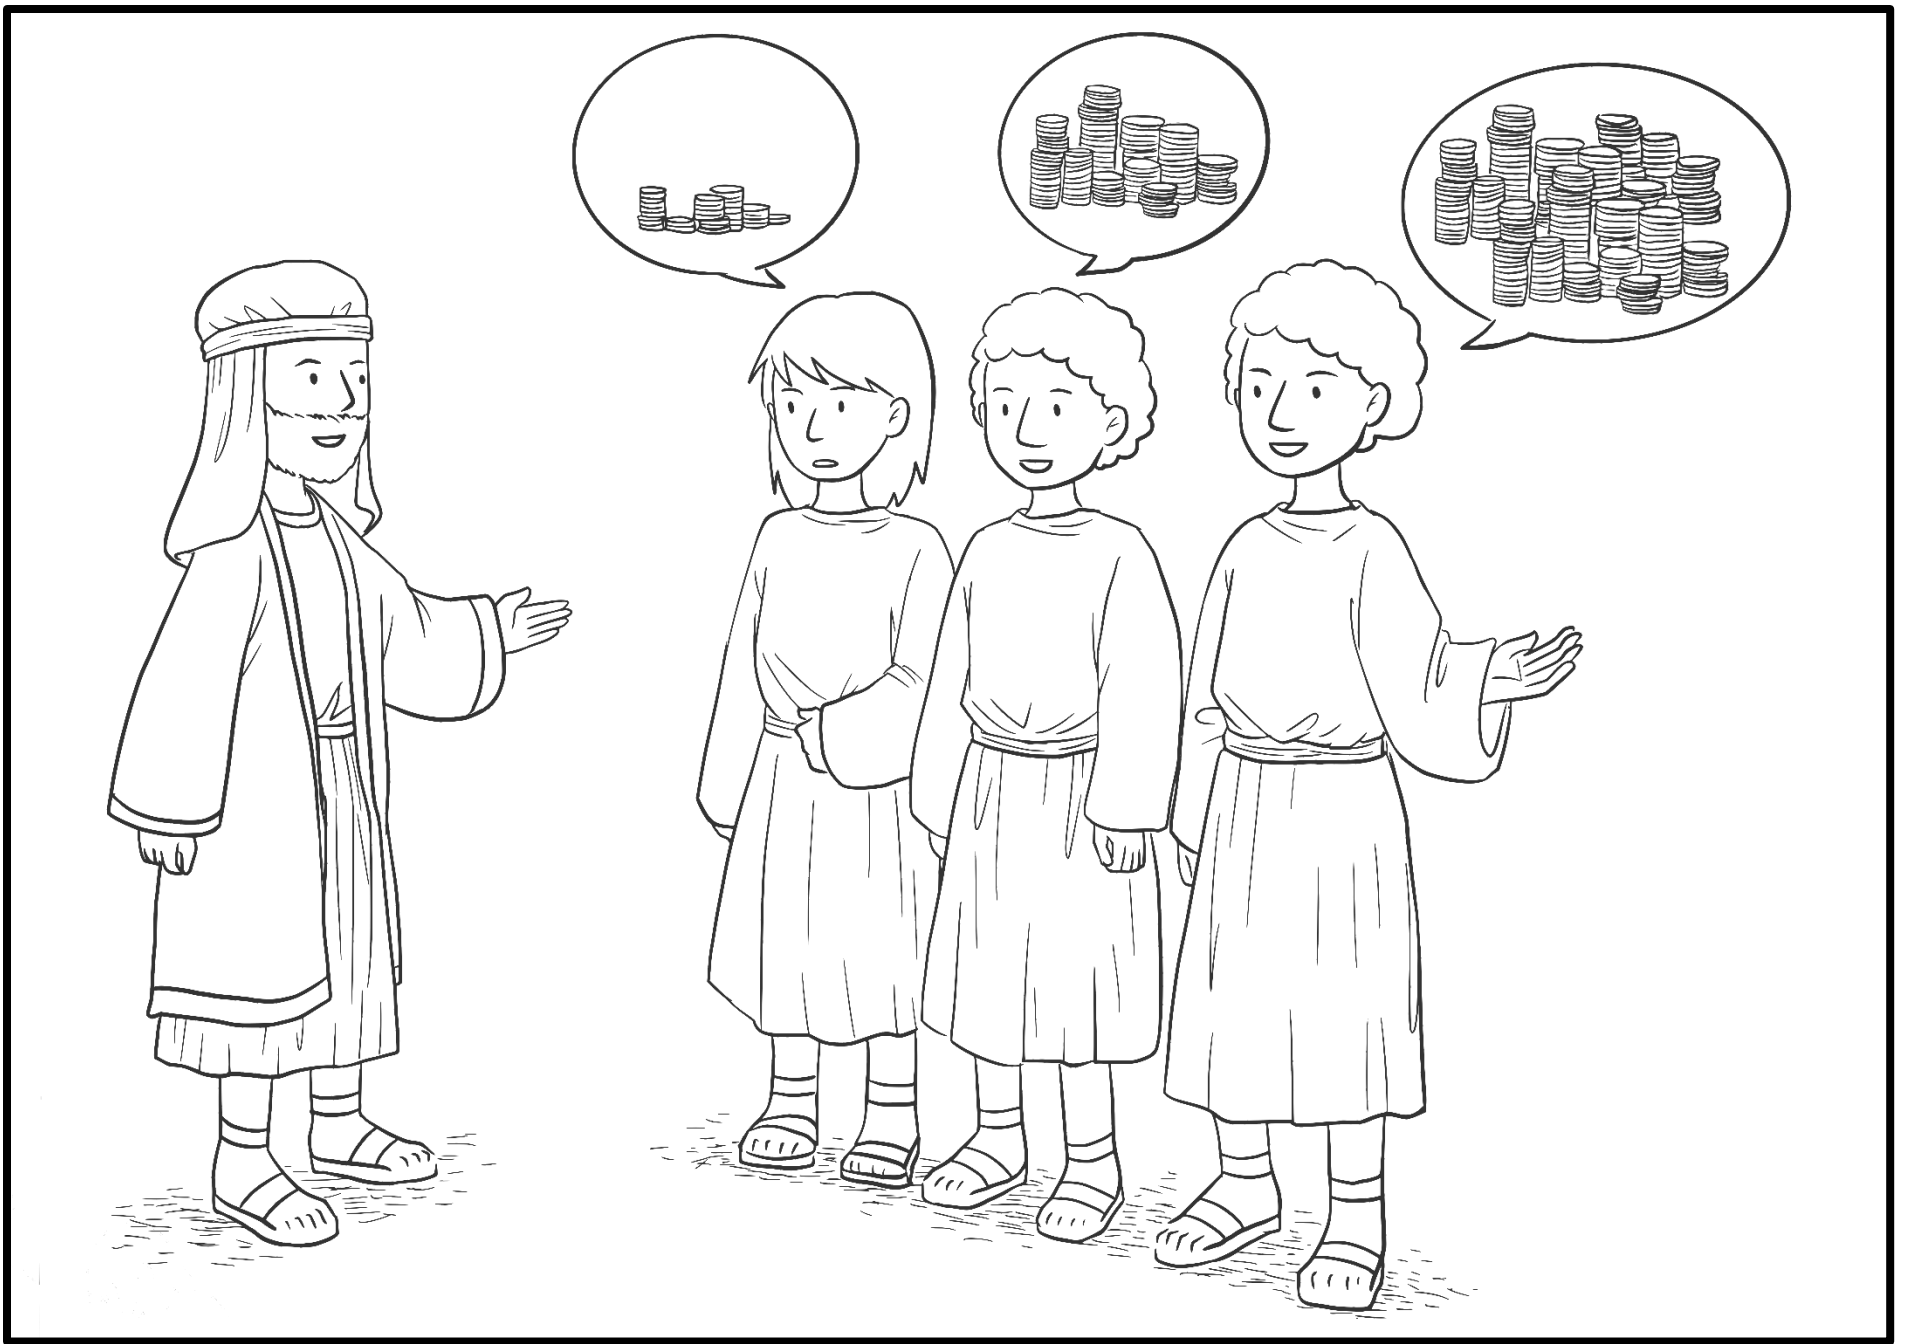

Talents

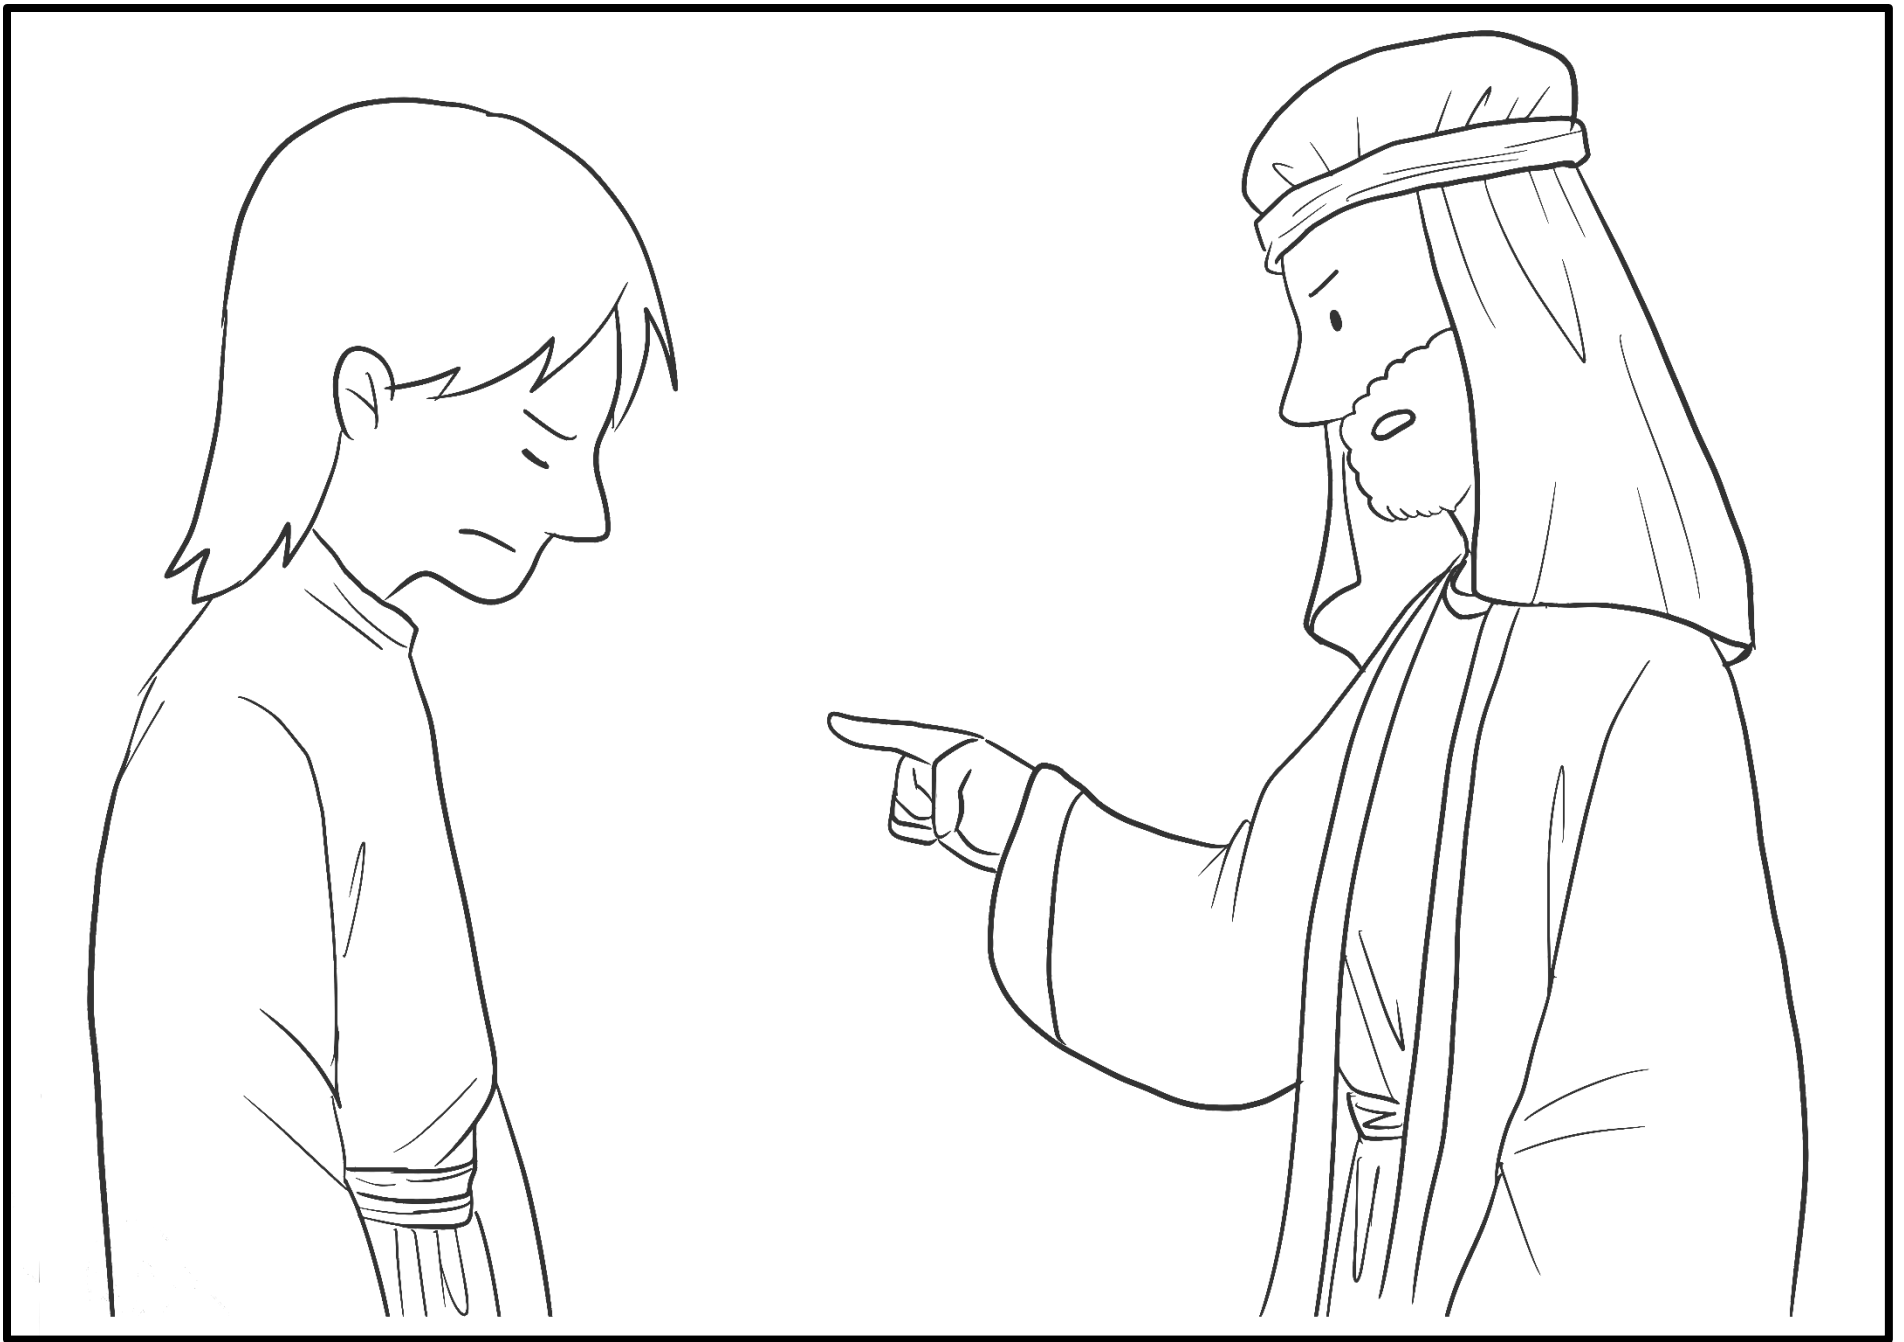

For it is like a man who went on a journey. He called his servants and delivered his possessions to them. And to one indeed he gave five talents, and to another, two, and to another, one, to each according to his ability. And he went immediately on his journey – Matthew 25:14-15

And going, the one who received the five talents worked with them and made another five talents. In the same way, the one with the two also did; he also gained another two. But going away, the one who received the one dug in the earth and hid his Master's silver – Matthew 25:16-18

And after much time, the master of those slaves came and took account with them – Matthew 25:19

And answering, his Master said to him, Evil and lazy slave! You knew that I reap where I did not sow, and I gather where I did not scatter. Then you ought to have put my silver to the bankers, and coming I would have received my own with interest – Matthew 25:26-27
