

Amy Carter, MSSW, LCSW, is a licensed, certified social worker. Amy received her Bachelor of Social Work from Western Kentucky University in May 1995. Amy has over twenty years working with Warren County and Bowling Green Independent Schools as a family resource coordinator. In 2017, Amy completed her Masters in Social Work from Campbellsville University. Amy completed her supervision and passed her LCSW test in June 2020. Amy currently works full time with Bowling Green Independent Schools as a Student Family Counselor and part-time for Wilson Counseling as a child, adult, and family therapist.

Amy's primary therapeutic approaches include Cognitive Behavioral Therapy, Solution-Focused Behavior Therapy, and multiple other types of therapy. Amy has worked in the school system, Barren River Area Safe Space and Community Action. Amy has extensive experience working with individuals and families, linking them to services, and collaborating with community partners.

Community Advocacy Activities include:

- * Growing Up Safe Multidisciplinary team 2018- present
- * Community FAIR Team 2019-present