

OHC PROGRAM AS OF APRIL 15

Time	Event	Venue
Thursday, June 16
2:00pm-6:00pm	Registration & Information Desk	Brockville Convention Centre 7829 Kent Blvd Brockville K6V 7J9
7:00pm-9:00 pm	Welcome Reception Meet & Greet	Aquarium Brockville 6 Broad St. Brockville K6V 0C4
9:00 pm	Pub Crawl	Suggested list available
Friday, June 17
8:00am-12:00pm	Registration & Information Desk	Brockville Arts Centre 235 King St. W. Brockville K6V 3S2
9:00am-9:30am	Opening Ceremonies	Brockville Arts Centre
9:30am-10:30am	Keynote Address Miranda Jimmy (she/her), Manager, Reconciliation, Diversity and Inclusion, National Trust for Canada. Miranda is a member of the Thunderchild First Nations. She has made a career in the arts and heritage sector, working with many different non-profit organizations, nations, governments, and private businesses. 2016, Miranda was an Avenue Magazine Top 40 under 40, being recognized for her work with RISE – Reconciliation in Solidarity Edmonton, an inclusive group promoting reconciliation in actions and words.	Brockville Arts Centre
10:30am-10:45am	Nutrition Break	Brockville Arts Centre
10:45am-12:15pm	Session 1.1 Ontario Heritage Act Amendments: What we've learned so far This session will discuss the recent amendments to the OHA and provide concrete examples of how some municipalities are dealing with those amendments. The focus will be on the content for new listings to a Heritage Register, dealing with listing notification requirements, addressing appeals to listings, preparing new designation by-laws, dealing with appeals to those designations, dealing with new designations and planning applications, and, if time permits, discussing any experiences panelists have had in dealing with the Ontario Land Tribunal. Presented by Community Heritage Ontario: Wes Kinghorn, Regan Hutchison, Wayne Morgan, Tamara Anson Cartwright	Brockville Arts Centre
10:45am-12:15pm	Session 1.2 Historic Railways Overview of the history of the B&O railway, the Brockville Railway Tunnel, from the controversial beginnings in the 1850's to the grand reopening in 2017 as a National Historic Site, and its economic impact on	Brockville Museum/Outdoors at Railway Tunnel 5 Henry St. Brockville K6V 6M4

	heritage tourism in Smith Falls and Brockville. This session includes a walking tour of the Train Tunnel Presenters: Brian Porter, Brockville Railway Tunnel, Tony Humphry, Eastern Ontario Railway Museum
1045:am-12:15pm	Session 1.3 Architectural Bus Tour 1 Narrated by Peggy Hauze, this tour looks at Brockville as an old city filled with interesting history and buildings. During this tour, we will cover Court House Green, Millionaires Row, and some lesser known but equally interesting buildings and neighborhoods.	Departs Brockville Museum
12:15pm-1:30pm	Lunch Vouchers for local nearby restaurants – A map will be provided for participating restaurants	Downton Brockville
1:15pm	Buss to Fulford Place departs Downtown
1:30pm-3:00pm	Session 2.1 A Projectile What?: Making Archaeology Accessible Ontario's archaeology is not well understood by the public, but this session presented by the Ontario Archaeological Society will change that! OAS Past President Jim Sherratt, current President Jill Taylor-Hollings, Lakehead University, and Kevin Gibbs, Manager, Heritage Programming, City of Kingston will demystify Archaeology Master Plans, e.g., Kingston's, and show why archaeology is important to other heritage sectors and the public.	Fulford Place Museum Gallery 287 King St. E. Brockville K6V 1E1
1:30pm-3:00pm	Session 2.2 Cultural Heritage Landscapes: Challenges and Opportunities A far-reaching discussion of the limitations and potentialities of Planning Act and Ontario Heritage Act (OHA) tools to conserve the "cultural heritage landscapes" defined in the 2021 Provincial Policy Statement. Vanessa Hicks and Rachel Redshaw, MHBC Planning, discuss why some communities chose Planning Act over OHA tools; Susan Ratcliffe tells why community activists chose the opposite approach to protect the former Guelph Reformatory landscapes. Yellowhead Institute Research Fellow Courtney Skye contrasts these legalistic approaches with the stewardship advocated by Indigenous communities.	Fulford Place Museum Billiard Room
1:30pm-3:00pm	Session 2.3 Architectural Bus Tour 2 (repeat of Tour 1) Narrated by Peggy Hauze, this tour looks at Brockville as an old city filled with interesting history and buildings. During this tour, we will cover Court House Green, Millionaires Row, and some lesser known but equally interesting buildings and neighborhoods.	Departs from Fulford Place Museum
1:30pm-4:45pm	Session 2.4 Heritage Window Restoration Part 1 will discuss the history and repair techniques used to conserve heritage windows. Attendees are encouraged to forward picture examples of problems they have encountered. Part 2 will be a hands-on session, showing techniques, materials, tips, and tricks used to restore and maintain heritage windows.	Brockville Armouries 144 King St. E Brockville K6V 1C2

	Walk from Fulford Place to Brockville Armouries 7 min. Facilitator: Jim Stinson
3:00pm-3:15pm	Nutrition Break	Fulford Place
3:15pm-4:45pm	Session 3.1 Adventures in Conservation: Homeowner Stories A candid look at the ups and downs of restoration and conservation from homeowners Bonita and Daniel Slunder (The Parish Hall), James Forrester (Old Red House), and Ted Outerbridge (Key Hole House).	Fulford Place Museum Gallery
3:15pm-4:45pm	Session 3.2 The Path to a More Inclusive Narrative: Sharing Experiences in Ontario's Black History and Heritage Beth Hanna, Chief Executive Officer, Ontario Heritage Trust will host a panel discussion of the Trust's recent programs and partnerships to create a more inclusive discussion of heritage, to expand the historical narrative in Ontario using land protection and stewardship, public programs, and its social media platforms to explore new approaches to the work we do. Specific program examples and lessons learned will be shared as we work together to design protection practices and interpretation approaches in Ontario's Black history and heritage.	Fulford Place Museum Billiard Room
3:15pm-4:45pm	Session 3.3 Heritage Gardens at Fulford Place Explore Fulford mansion's heritage gardens looking at period heritage plantings, hardscaping, and landscaping for heritage gardens.	Fulford Place Museum Gardens
5:00pm	Ontario Association of Heritage Professionals Annual General Meeting	Fulford Place
6:00pm-9:00pm	Cocktail & Gala Dinner & CHO Awards Keynote: Marc Denhez Welcome to the Heritage Tunnel. How did we Get There, and How Do We Get Out?	Brockville Convention Centre 7829 Kent Blvd Brockville K6V 7J9
Saturday, June 18
8:00am-noon	Registration & Information Desk	Brockville Convention Centre 7829 Kent Blvd Brockville K6V 7J9
8:00am-8:30am	Community Heritage Ontario Annual General Meeting – Open to all	Holiday Inn Express
9:00am-10:30pm	Session 4.1 Heritage in a post-Covid World The past two years have been challenging, for heritage staff, heritage firms, heritage volunteers, heritage organizations. This session will look at the transitions of one longtime heritage staff, one heritage organization (Architectural Conservancy Ontario, represented by COO Will Coukell) and one young creative designer (Stephanie Mah, Giaimo) had to make to survive the pandemic. As we near the end of the tunnel, should we pick up our old ways of doing things? Are further transitions needed? Be prepared to discuss!	Brockville Convention Centre
9:00am-10:30am	Session 4.2 Heritage, Security, and Accessibility	Holiday Inn Express

	Most heritage sites and areas are meant to be explored. Public gathering places and significant buildings attract visitors. Carl Bray will look at the security aspect using case studies, Thea Kurdy(virtual) discuss accessibility for all, and architect Michael McLelland will look at design.
9:00am -10:30pm	Session 4.3 Cemetery Management Part 1 Municipalities are responsible for abandoned cemeteries and MHCs receive many inquiries about the cemeteries in their locality. The Ontario Cemetery Act will be explained, in plain language, to those who want to know more about regulations for active and abandoned cemeteries, and the responsibilities under the Act. Presenters: David Brazeau, Bereavement Association of Ontario	Brockville Convention Centre
10:30am-10:45am	Nutrition Break	Brockville Convention Centre & Holiday Inn Express
10:30am	Bus departs for session Cemetery Part 2 Hands-on workshop	Brockville Convention Centre
10:45am-12:15pm	Session 5.1 Success: Collaborate, Consensus or... Court Action: Here's What Works Via riveting real-life examples, Robert Burtch, chair, Friends of the Springfield House Complex, Escott, Shirley Bailey, president, Frontenac Heritage Foundation, Kingston, and Suzanne Kavanagh, Founder Friends of the Foundry, Toronto, show us there's no one size fits all approach to successful built heritage conservation. Be prepared to learn new techniques and how and when to use them.	Brockville Convention Centre
10:45am-12:15pm	Session 5.2 Engaging Youth in Heritage How do we bring heritage alive to inspire and engage the next generation? Four panelists discuss the importance of tangible and intangible heritage, accessible programming, and much more. Presenters are Paul Merredew, co-organizer of Spirit of the Drum Educational and Traditional Powwows, and Blake Seward, creator of Canada's nationally acclaimed Lest We Forget project, both teachers at Smiths Falls District Collegiate Institute, Christopher Hahn, Dean, Perth Campus, Heritage Institute and Algonquin Centre for Construction Excellence, Alex Sostar, Chair, Architectural Conservancy Ontario NextGen Committee.	Brockville Convention Centre
10:45am-12:15pm	Session 5.3 Practical Lessons in Decolonizing and Diversifying Heritage The Final Report of the Truth and Reconciliation Commission of Canada (2015), the Provincial Policy Statement's direction to engage with Indigenous peoples on planning matters (2021), and the United Nations Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples Act (2021), all encourage municipalities to change their approach to heritage planning. Dr. Jennifer Campbell,	Holiday Inn Express

	Director of Heritage Services for the City of Kingston; Cody Groat(virtual), Assistant Professor of History and Indigenous Studies at Western University; and Melissa Hammell, Senior Consultant at First Peoples Group, discuss how they have re-envisioned their organizational thinking and practices to overcome barriers and enact meaningful change.
10:45am-12:15pm	Session 5.4 Cemetery Management Part 2 Demonstration and hands-on experience cleaning and maintenance of headstones at Fulford Pioneer Cemetery. A handout and materials list will be available.	Fulford Pioneer Cemetery (bus available)
12:15pm-1:30pm	Lunch	Brockville Convention Centre
1:30pm-3:00pm	Session 6.1 The Experience and Challenges of Rural or Remote Municipal Heritage Committees Remote and rural municipal heritage committee members will talk about their successes and the challenges they face in carrying out their mandates. They will discuss how they have met those challenges and will raise suggestions for assistance, from the provincial government, Community Heritage Ontario, and other heritage organizations that might assist them in meeting their heritage objectives. Participation from the audience in the discussion will be encouraged. Presented by Community Heritage Ontario Nicola Alexander, Timmins, Robert Deane, Alnwick-Haldimand, Robert Honor, Amherstburg Heritage, Ian MacLean, Heritage Almonte	Brockville Convention Centre
1:30pm-3:00pm	Session 6.2 Top 5 Things to Know Before Starting a Heritage Conservation District Study This session, presented by the Ontario Association of Heritage Professionals, shares advice from four very experienced public and private sector heritage planners: Tamara Anson Cartwright, Program Manager, Heritage Planning, City of Toronto, Meaghan Rivard, Senior Cultural Heritage Specialist, Stantec, Nick Borcescu, Senior Heritage Planner, City of Vaughan, and Mackenzie Kimm, Heritage Planner, City of Ottawa. Come and learn from the experts!	Brockville Convention Centre
1:30pm-3:00pm	Session 6.3 Climate and Heritage: From Landscapes to Cities Three panelists engage in a thoughtful discussion of the complex interaction between climate and heritage: Don Ross, Thousand Islands Watershed Land Trust, on how green infrastructure is the gatekeeper of our tomorrows, Lloyd Alter, author of Living the 1.5 Degree Lifestyle, on applying lessons from the past (and elsewhere) to mitigate global warming, and Susan Ross, Carleton University School of Indigenous and Canadian Studies, on how changing climates are redefining heritage, and shifting the emphasis from continuity to adaptation, creative engagement with loss, and planning for uncertain futures.	Holiday Inn Express Room
3:00pm-3:15pm	Nutrition Break	Brockville Convention Centre

3:15pm-4:30pm	Session 7 Cole Shoal Lighthouse Project – A River Story Explore the history of Cole Shoal Range and 5 Mile Light from it's beginning as a beacon for river travellers along the St. Lawrence, to tragedy, and rebirth as a treasured landmark on the river. Find out how the community and volunteers came together to rebuild. Presenter: Mike Milne	Brockville Convention Centre
4:30pm	Closing Remarks	Brockville Convention Centre

Partner/Spouse Activity Program – these events are optional and can be booked when you register

Friday, June 17 – 10 am-2 pm – Cooking Class – French Cooking at Maison Maitland Cost $160 (min 4/max 10)

The hands-on cooking class will be conducted in a state-of-the-art chef's kitchen. Cooking in teams of 2, you will prepare under instruction, a three-course French-inspired meal.

Following your cooking class, lunch will be enjoyed together around the dining table or courtyard (weather permitting), with a complimentary sampling of local wines and drinks.

Maison Maitland - From the Farm Cooking School

Maison Maitland is a Palladian-style manor perched on five rolling acres overlooking the beautiful St Lawrence River.

Friday, June 17 or Saturday, June 18 – 10 am-3 pm – Photography Tour with Charles Low Cost $100 (max 10)

The tour will be conducted by a local professional photographer: Charles Low. Participants will be guided to a few great landscapes and architectural sites with an intention to encourage a deeper seeing at each. Participants may request tutelage, as we go along, or simply enjoy each location. A tour for photographers (smartphone, film camera, and digital shooters welcome ... tripods handy but not required)

You will be responsible for your own transportation. A route map and timed stops will be provided, although strict adherence to the timing is not required. Participants are free to spend more time at the stops or points of interest along the route and rejoin the group later. A box lunch will be provided. Please indicate any special dietary requirements with your registration for this event.

Thursday pre-conference activities (optional)

Car Rally – 2 pm

Departs from the Holiday Inn Express – 7815 Kent Blvd, Brockville, K6V 0C4 (just north of the 401)

Duration 2 hours – No Cost to join – This is a self-guided rally and flexible as to departure time.

This easy discovery route will take you to small towns and the countryside.

Lyn Heritage Place Museum – 2-4 pm -19 Main St. W., Lyn, ON K0E 1M0

Heritage Place Museum offers a glimpse into the history of the Village of Lyn. Local business, people, and period items are on display in our four main rooms. Large collection/genealogy/archives.

No cost but donations are accepted. It Opens 2 pm to 4 pm