

This dry red was aged in a combination of French and American oak. It is a varietal combination of the Landot and St. Croix grapes with no residual sugar.

This wine is named after the children who had a hand, in some way, shaping the end product that comes from our vineyard. Selecting letters of all five of their names yielded the name of Mystical Miracles. Truly, each of them are!

freas farm winery

Landot Noir & St. Croix
Pennsylvania Table Wine