Capitol Idea!

For our October event, the Arcadians took a guided tour of Utah's Capitol Building.

The Capitol the evening of our tour.

Completed in 1916, the Capitol is an excellent example of classical Greek architecture - a point the docent cleverly pointed out to the group several times!

It was interesting to learn that many of the gorgeous details that make the Capitol so stunning had been hidden for years under layers of paint - rediscovered during seismic upgrades.

A wyvern hidden for decades

We learned some Utah history, saw both the House and Senate chambers, the Supreme Court, and even visited with a state representative.

The group getting a look around.

A great time was had by all!

Murals in the rotunda.

A big thank you to Karen Anastasopoulos for making this tour happen. And thanks to everyone who came out!

Utah's own suffragette and women's rights advocate Emmeline B. Wells.

President's Message

It has been a great honor to serve as president. I am proud of our commitment to preserving our heritage and helping others.

Thanks to a successful makaronada and summer picnic, we were able to donate $1,000 to an Arcadian food bank, give $500 to needy families in Utah, & serve lunch to 170 Opa Camp kids.

I'd like to thank Antoinette Sotiriou, Irene Wallingford, and Sandra Katis for serving as my fellow officers. Also, thanks to Karen Anastasopoulos for planning all of our fun activities!

I hope I've served you well.
