We respect your privacy. We will never share, sell, or rent individual personal information with anyone without your advance permission or unless ordered by a court of law.

We collect personal information only when you voluntarily provide it to us via email, web-based fill-in forms, or other direct contact with us.

When you donate online with us, you will be redirected to an SSL-secured website operated by our trusted link and there you will be required to provide personal information (including your credit card details). The information you provide will be processed in accordance with its privacy policy (available at the bottom of billing pages) and you are therefore advised to review such policy prior to purchase. We will have access to your full name, company name, address and contact info, but not to your credit card or any other payment account data.

We may share your personal information with third parties only if we believe such action is necessary to: (a) satisfy any applicable law, regulation, legal process or enforceable governmental request; (b) investigate, prevent, or take action regarding illegal activities or suspected fraud; (c) protect and defend the rights or property of all in one; or (d) act in situations involving potential threats to the personal safety of any person.

This website is provided as a public service. We may periodically update this policy. When we do, we will post those changes on this page so that you are always aware of the information we collect, how we use it, and under what circumstances we disclose it.

If you have any questions about this privacy policy, please contact us.
