

Disqualification Policy

- In the event of the disqualification of the registration provider the provider must not continue as an Early Years Provider
- If an employer becomes aware of relevant information which may lead to disqualification of an employee, the provider must take appropriate action to ensure the safety of the children.
- In the event of disqualification of a person employed in Early Years provision the provider must not continue to employ that person
- Ofsted must be informed if any of the following apply:

Details of any order, conviction or other grounds for disqualification from the registration under Section 75 of the Childcare Act 2006

The date of the order, conviction or the date when the other grounds for disqualification arose.

The body of court which made the order, conviction and the sentence (if any) imposed.

A certified copy of the relevant order (in relation to an order or conviction)

- The information will be provided by Ofsted as soon as reasonably practicable, but the latest within 14 days of the date the provider became aware of the information or ought to have reasonably have become aware of it if they had made reasonable enquires.
