

The GCLEA aspires to

- Develop resources that will improve the level of education and awareness concerning lupus for healthcare providers and the general public
- Develop resources for communities that lack access to specialized lupus healthcare providers, based upon the incidence and prevalence of lupus in the State of Georgia, and
- Develop resources that encourage professional development and specialization in the diagnosis of lupus and the care, management, and treatment of people with lupus.

