

JUNE INSPIRATIONS 2022 Pastor's Page

Greetings:

This first part is taken from my pastoral letter last year but it is important and I wanted to feature it again. June is another busy month for many of us as summer is officially in full-swing, Father's Day, VBS, camping, family reunions, etc. I am a firm believer in the importance of the family and the role of the father. I came across an article in the Northwood Anchor on the week of May 19th 2021 - that reiterates the importance of what I have been advocating for. Here is a synopsis of the article:

Build a strong family to benefit children and adults

Children and adults benefit from being supported by a strong family unit, no matter how it is defined. This support can come from parents with a positive relationship, extended family and friends, and the community according to Joy Rouse, a human sciences specialist with Iowa State University Extension and Outreach. There are six characteristics that strong families share: 1) family members have a strong commitment to each other and make their relationships a high priority. 2) They make it known that they appreciate each other. 3) They talk to each other about small things and big issues. 4) They spend time together. 5) They believe in a greater power and have shared beliefs (we know this to be God and Christianity but others find strength and comfort in other religions). 6) Strong families cope with difficulties and crises effectively.

For many of us this seems like common sense but with the changing family dynamics and the shrinking of the nuclear family these characteristics are not the norm. When I look at these six characteristics I not only picture my family (immediate and extended) but also my church family. When we make relationships a high priority, appreciate each other, talk, spend time together, share a common experience in a personal relationship with Jesus, and bearing each other's burdens – this is what I love about my church family. By living these out in our own families and being in community together is a benefit to all: children and adults.

Since this article was rather P.C. it did not mention specifically the importance of fathers who have an active, participatory relationship with their children. Recently I saw a commercial that featured a father and daughter playing catch and it chronicled her growing up and each different sport and the message was I do not remember when our game of catch started but I know that whenever I toss the ball, you are there to throw it right back to me. Fathers Matter!

Finally, a couple of programming notes. Father's Day, June 19th, is going to be a joint service at the Worth County Fairgrounds at 9am in the Shelter House. Brothers Walker will be leading worship again this year and there is no admission charge that morning so this is your chance to check out the fair for free. Also, the Worth County Cattleman's put on a BBQ lunch that is phenomenal – so, come to church at the fair and treat dad to a great lunch.

VBS in Bolan starts the next day and runs June 20th – 24th from 9am to noon. I rented a van and can transport children from Asbury and Northwood, look for more info in the newsletter. I will also be leading the discovery center again this year and look forward to seeing everyone again.

It is my hope that you have been enjoying our sermon series on the Book of Revelation. There is only so much about this book though that fits for a sermon.

That is why starting in July I will be leading a study on Revelations and it will give us a chance to look at the more difficult, hard to understand parts and have a discussion. More details to come on that.

Spend some time with your family and tell all the dads how much you appreciate them.

Pastor Rob

Join the Pastor on TUESDAYS from 10-noon at Swallow Coffeehouse in Lake Mills every week OR the 2nd and 4th Thursdays of the month for Pub Theology at 7pm at the Worth Brewing if you would care to join him for a bit of fellowship and conversation.

Kay's garden is being tended by Skylar Beresford. She is the owner of Backyard Garden and Gifts. She volunteered to take on this project. The garden looks better already. If you see Skylar, please thank her for her efforts.

Asbury's Esther's Circle wants to send a thank you to a special lady, Betty Vold.

Betty was kind enough to visit our circle last month. Betty shared her secret recipe for making white wedding cake complete with her special icing.

She showed us many helpful tips that would assure a scrumptious cake, a great time was had by all.

Thank you to those that thought of me on Administrative Professionals Day, it is so nice to work for places that appreciate you! Thank you!
