Prayer Intention for August, 2022

For small businesses – We pray for small and medium sized businesses; in the midst of economic and social crisis, may they find ways to continue operating, and serving their communities.

Let us pray: - For our pastor, Fr. Peter, that he may remain safe in his travels, and may he be spiritually renewed to continue his ministry in our community.

- For the conversion of Christians, especially those of our parishes.

- For an end to the war in Ukraine and for its displaced and traumatized citizens and for the soldiers who sacrifice their lives for their country.

Parish life:

+ The Parish office is open every Thursday from 8:30 am to 4:00 pm.

+ Father John Tê Nguyen will be our replacing priest during Father Peter's time away. Welcome Father John!

+ Prayer of the week - My great God

O my great God, how does it happen in this poor world that you are so great and yet nobody finds you, that you call so loudly and yet nobody hears you, that you are so near and yet nobody feels you, that you give yourself to everybody and yet nobody knows your name? People flee from you and say they cannot find you; they turn their backs and say they cannot see you; they stop their ears and say they cannot hear you. Show yourself to us so that we might see your face and follow you. Amen. -Hans Denck

When we go before the Blessed Sacrament, let us open our heart; our good God will open his. We shall go to him; he will come to us; the one to ask, the other to receive. It will be like a breath from one to the other. – St. John Mary Vianney

* Crisis in Ethiopia – Humanitarian Aid Wanted

CNEWA is initiating a relief campaign to rush humanitarian aid to Ethiopia's increasingly vulnerable population. Prices of grain, cooking oil and other essentials are skyrocketing, as Ethiopians contend with ongoing drought, exacerbated by the inter-ethnic violence that gripped its northern provinces last year, as well as shortages brought about by the ongoing war between Russia and Ukraine. The United Nations reports Russia and Ukraine supply about 40 percent of Africa's grain imports. In Ethiopia's Tigray region, where CNEWA will focus its funds, schools and banks remain closed, limiting access to money and services. Some report that businesses have been shut as fuel costs soar. As CNEWA's campaign begins, the CNEWA team is hoping Canadians from coast to coast to coast will be able to respond.

"We are greatly concerned about the ongoing plight of Ethiopians," said Judith Poitevien, Interim National Director of CNEWA's Ottawa-based office. "We hope Canadians will respond as they did so generously with our Ukrainian appeal. With the help of our many donors and friends, we are confident we will be able to help serve and support those in need in Ethiopia."

Since the mid 1980's, the east African country has struggled with environmental change, drought, war, revolution and civil strife. After a number of years of relative stability and economic growth, however, inter-ethnic violence has torn apart the country, especially in its northern provinces. Homes, places of worship and schools have been looted and heavily damaged. Reports continue of families living in fear of the unknown, as they face hunger and violence.

CNEWA's partners in Ethiopia continue to plea for those most vulnerable, especially children, nursing mothers and the elderly. "If we survive, we survive with gratitude for whatever assistance you give to us," said Bishop Medhin of Adigrat in Ethiopia.

Donations can be made online at cnewa.ca or by phone at 1-866-322-4441. Cheques can be mailed to CNEWA at 223 Main Street, Ottawa, ON K1S 1C4, marked "Ethiopia." Tax receipts will be issued for donations of $10 or more. ### ☺ The Collar

A priest was walking along the corridor of the parochial school near the preschool wing when a group of little ones were trotting by on the way to the cafeteria. One little lad of about three or four stopped and looked at him in his clerical clothes and asked "Why do you dress funny?"

He told him he was a priest and this is the uniform priests wear.

Then the boy pointed to the priest's plastic collar tab and asked, "Do you have an owie?"

The priest was perplexed until he realized that to him the collar tab looked like a band-aid. So the priest took it out and handed it to the boy to show him. On the back of the tab are raised letters giving the name of the manufacturer.

The little guy felt the letters, and the priest asked, "Do you know what those words say?"

"Yes I do," said the lad who was not old enough to read. Peering intently at the letters he said, "Kills ticks and fleas up to six months!"

20th Sunday in Ordinary Times C - August 14th, 2022

Take our cross and be ablaze of the Holy Spirit

"Do you think I have come to give you peace on Earth? No, I tell you, but rather division." Luke 12:51

Many of us like to play it safe, not cause waves with our family and friends, especially when it comes to politics and religion. We don't want to cause any turmoil. However, many times this is at the expense of the truth. The truth being Jesus Christ. Too many people are misguided because they rely on their own limited human ability to reason and are not allowing faith in God to guide them. Form your conscience; take a stance for life, marriage and religious liberty.
