‘Trevor’s Column’

Dear sisters and brothers,

Last week I reflected on the desire expressed by many respondents to our recent National Church Life Survey that they wanted to see building a sense of community as a priority over the next 12 months. To foster togetherness needs changed attitudes, actions and speech in the way we relate to one another. To that end there is one essential attitude needed to build authentic Christian community which will also be attractive to a needy watching world. The fundamental command of Jesus for building community is love one another. We know the text because we have often sung it in worship, even though overfamiliarity may mean we miss two key things Jesus is stressing -

A new command I give you: love one another. As I have loved you, so you must love one another.

Firstly, loving others is obligatory for the friends of Jesus. Despite what we think ‘love’ does not come naturally. Left to ourselves we will only love narrowly (for example, our friends to whom we are drawn by common interest). But this is a command to love those who are different, difficult or awkward. Moreover since commands are addressed to the mind and the will, the curious modern idea that love is a just a feeling is knocked on the head. Instead out of obedience to our Saviour we are to serve our brothers and sisters despite our feelings. I learned this particular lesson about love being a command when I was a teenager. There was a boy at our school who was awkward and lonely. He hung around on the edge of our Christian group so we decided if we were serious about following Jesus we had better try to include him. We therefore spent time with him, including him in our lunchtime games even though he was not very good. We listened patiently even though his interests were not ours. In other words we served him as Jesus had taught us to do and to our surprise he came to faith in Christ. In time he became a good friend because we had obeyed this command of Jesus. I had learned that love is a choice made on the path of discipleship. Secondly, it is a new command, not to love as we love ourselves but to instead love as he has loved us. In other words the stakes have been raised because there is a new standard and a new motive. Moreover in the new covenant initiated by his death there is a new inner resource in the shape of His indwelling Spirit to enable us to begin to love each other in a cross like way. In short there is a new sacrificial model or standard for loving and a new motive and incentive as well. If we are to build community in this church then we will need this mindset or attitude. We will need a willingness to lay down our lives for others in obedience to our Saviour Christ.

Prayerfully yours, Trevor Edwards

In our Prayers this week:

Please give thanks for:

- * Our family, friends and neighbours and the community in which God has planted us;
- * The great facilities we have at our two centres, and for those who care for them;
- * the blessings large and small which God showers upon us day by day.

Please pray for:

- * Grace and strength Helen Dellow 11am, readmitted to hospital) and for all those in our Church Family who are grieving, dealing with health issues or caring for a loved-one;
- * Comfort and strength for those in Afghanistan who have lost loved-ones, homes and livelihoods in this week’s earthquake;
- * Wisdom for our volunteer SRE teachers as they teach about Jesus in our schools;
- * Our planned church services at Sarah Claydon village this week, and at ArCare village on 13 July – that these would be a means for residents to engage with God;
- * Open hearts as we study and apply (from our new sermon series) what it means to be a disciple of Jesus;
- * A spirit of genuinely sacrificial love among us as we seek to build a greater sense of community together;
- * Miriam Bradshaw (CMS Link Missionary in Spain) as she prepares to have a break from her service and visit supporting churches back in Australia;
- * Yosef & Danica, (serving with YWAM in Mexico) - for safety and good health as they prepare for a new baby, and opportunities to share the true message of Jesus in their community;

My notes

Welcome

Thank you for joining us today and a special welcome if you are visiting.

Ministry at ArCare Aged Care Facility at Mollymook

At the invitation of the management of the ArCare Aged Care Facility, the local churches have been invited to be part of a monthly service for residents in the facility. A roster has been developed with our parish scheduled to participate on Wednesday 13th July 2022 at 11.00am and on one other date later in the year but still to be confirmed.

It is early days for this initiative but I have been informed that to date 8 residents have taken up the opportunity to meet in this way. Until it is more established it will be low key service as we engage in conversation with these residents and offer a brief devotional accompanied by prayers. It would be really helpful on this occasion to have someone who could play an instrument and sing a couple of songs to enhance what we do.

If you are able to volunteer and assist on that date at that time, please speak to Trevor today

“Thank you” from Paul Gurrier-Jones

“Hello sisters and brothers.

Thank you for your care and prayer leading up to, during and following my recent complete left hip replacement. I am praising the Lord for a good outcome.

Paul Gurrier-Jones “

A prayer for a new Senior Minister

*Bountiful God, give to this parish a faithful pastor who will faithfully speak your word and minister your sacraments;
an encourager who will equip your people for ministry and enable us to fulfil our calling.*

*Give to those who will choose, wisdom, discernment and patience, and to us give warm and generous hearts, for Jesus Christ's sake. Amen

Luke 10:1-20 (Text for 8.30am & 11am)

After this the Lord appointed seventy-two^[a] others and sent them two by two ahead of him to every town and place where he was about to go. ² He told them, "The harvest is plentiful, but the workers are few. Ask the Lord of the harvest, therefore, to send out workers into his harvest field. ³ Go! I am sending you out like lambs among wolves. ⁴ Do not take a purse or bag or sandals; and do not greet anyone on the road. ⁵ "When you enter a house, first say, 'Peace to this house.' ⁶ If someone who promotes peace is there, your peace will rest on them; if not, it will return to you. ⁷ Stay there, eating and drinking whatever they give you, for the worker deserves his wages. Do not move around from house to house. ⁸ "When you enter a town and are welcomed, eat what is offered to you. ⁹ Heal the sick who are there and tell them, 'The kingdom of God has come near to you.' ¹⁰ But when you enter a town and are not welcomed, go into its streets and say, ¹¹ 'Even the dust of your town we wipe from our feet as a warning to you. Yet be sure of this: The kingdom of God has come near.' ¹² I tell you, it will be more bearable on that day for Sodom than for that town. ¹³ "Woe to you, Chorazin! Woe to you, Bethsaida! For if the miracles that were performed in you had been performed in Tyre and Sidon, they would have repented long ago, sitting in sackcloth and ashes. ¹⁴ But it will be more bearable for Tyre and Sidon at the judgment than for you. ¹⁵ And you, Capernaum, will you be lifted to the heavens? No, you will go down to Hades. ¹⁶ "Whoever listens to you listens to me; whoever rejects you rejects me; but whoever rejects me rejects him who sent me." ¹⁷ The seventy-two returned with joy and said, "Lord, even the demons submit to us in your name." ¹⁸ He replied, "I saw Satan fall like lightning from heaven. ¹⁹ I have given you authority to trample on snakes and scorpions and to overcome all the power of the enemy; nothing will harm you. ²⁰ However, do not rejoice that the spirits submit to you, but rejoice that your names are written in heaven."

Luke 10:21-24 (Text for 10.30am & 5.30pm)

²¹ At that time Jesus, full of joy through the Holy Spirit, said, "I praise you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because you have hidden these things from the wise and learned, and revealed them to little children. Yes, Father, for this is what you were pleased to do. ²² "All things have been committed to me by my Father. No one knows who the Son is except the Father, and no one knows who the Father is except the Son and those to whom the Son chooses to reveal him." ²³ Then he turned to his disciples and said privately, "Blessed are the eyes that see what you see. ²⁴ For I tell you that many prophets and kings wanted to see what you see but did not see it, and to hear what you hear but did not hear it."

Rectory update

Despite some delays caused by rain and material-supply issues, the Rectory renovations are progressing well under the skilful hand of Luke Stewart. The new roof is on, new windows have been installed, the new kitchen is nearing completion, painting is almost finished, floor coverings have been laid in most rooms and new paving put down in the outdoor entertaining areas.

The final stages of this extensive work will be the 'finishing touches' such as light fittings and window coverings. Parish Council acknowledges with appreciation several donations, large and small, which have been received already for these items, and invites other members of the Church Family who would like to contribute to preparing the home for our new Senior Minister to place their donation in an envelope marked 'Rectory' in the offertory.

There will also be opportunity soon for some volunteers to help rehabilitate lawn and garden areas to pre-construction condition.
