

Below avoids going through Lancaster

- From Carlisle,

take either 81N and 581E to 283E, or PA Turnpike East to 283E.

- 283E to 741E.

- 741E to 272S.

- 272S to Red Point Road.

(from the south end of North East Md, where the North and South bound lanes merge, it is about 4.3 miles to Red Point Road. There is a sign for Camp Rodney at the intersection of 272S and Red Point Road, though the sign can be easy to miss.)

- Turn right on Red Point Road.

- Immediately turn left onto Arrants Road.

- Travel about a tenth of a mile to the entrance to Camp Rodney on the right. Once on the camp road, follow the directions to the campsite.

If you have a GPS or use a map application on your phone, you may want to put "400 Rodney Scout Road" in and begin to follow your GPS/map app once you are on 272S.
