

The role of the Saints in our lives.

Who are the saints? Who are the blessed? And why do we celebrate the Feast of All Saints every year on November 1st?

Dear Parishioners and Friends:

As you know, each saint, during his lifetime, was a real man with his weaknesses and imperfections. It happened that the saints were angry with the people, were upset with God, were irritable and impatient, and committed sins and mistakes that they regretted. Even though they wandered, they steadfastly headed towards Heaven. It can be said that the common characteristic of all the blessed and saints is literalness in the pursuit of Christian perfection. They realized this perfection in various ways, such as silent and humble prayer and through service to others in many different ways. That's why we have to remember that holiness is not a work of man, but a gift of God: "Every gift and blessing that we receive in our lives comes down from above, from Our Father in Heaven" - wrote St. Jacob.

So what is their role in our lives?

The Church teaches us that the saints help us to become saints as well, and one day we will enjoy seeing God in Heaven. They are also great advocates in difficult matters, marriage issues, addictions, doubts in our faith, and other life complications. The Saints also pray and cure the sick members of our families. Their intercession to God is perfect, because having obtained eternal salvation, they sing perfect praises to God in Heaven. As your spiritual leader, I encourage each of you to use the help of the saints and the blessed during the month of November by praying intercessory prayers to specific Saints and saying the Litany to All Saints.

Let us pray unceasingly, and do not give up, because it is really effective. Happy All Saints Day to everyone, Fr. Peter, your Parish priest.
