Romans 8: 28-39 More than Conquerors

The love of God, Paul explains in Romans 8, starts with 'no condemnation' in v1 and ends in 'no separation'. Verses 28/39 are indeed the crescendo of the whole of Romans.

Life is not the random mess it might appear. "We know that all things work together for good for those who love God who have been called according to His purpose" (v28). This promise applies to all Christians. In every detail of our Christian lives, God is at work. He has a plan and purpose for our lives and is Sovereign. In everything He works for the good of those who love Him. When the going gets tough it's hard to believe this is true. What's going on now is only a snapshot, not the whole picture of our lives. We don't know what the final picture will be. But we do know that God is always with us and exercises His sovereignty in love.

He can turn the worst things that can happen in our lives and use them for good. We have to trust that He knows what is best for us, hard as that might be. It's easy to trust God when things are going well, much harder when the going gets tough. The challenge is to keep trusting even in the midst of troubles. God will use our troubles and hard times for good. He will shape our character through them and we will learn new things about Him. The hard times have the potential for us to mature as Christians, to grow in holiness and become more like Jesus.

From the beginning of time God knew all about you, He chose you and called you and His purpose always was for you to be like Jesus and He'll stay with you to the end until you're glorified. Why? Because He loves you unconditionally. You are special to God, precious, He knows you by name, you belong to Him, you are part of His family.

How can you be sure of God's love?

- 1. With God on your side like this, how can you lose? v31b.
- 2. If God gave His Son for you, is He likely to withhold anything else? v32.
- 3. Who is going to dare to prosecute you? 'Who will bring any charge against those whom God has chosen?' v33a.
- 4. If God is the judge and Jesus your defence counsel, how can a prosecution succeed? It is God who justifies. Who then can condemn? v33b-34.
- 5. How can anyone drive a wedge between you and Christ's love? "No, in all these things we are more than conquerors through Him who loved us" v37

Paul concludes that he is totally convinced that nothing 'will be able to separate us from the love of God that is in Christ Jesus'. Are you? Isaac Watts wrote, 'Love so amazing, so divine, demands my soul, my life, my all'.

The wonder of all this is almost too much to take in! God is good, all the time and His love endures for ever.
