June 2017 News Flash

Memorial Day Services at Riverview Cemetery were held indoors at The Resurrection Center. The room was full of people; and, together we Remembered, Honored, and Supported Veterans. FHRC appreciates the warm and generous hospitality, music, speakers, and donations for The Delaware Center for Homeless Veterans. We will share photos in the July Newsletter.

2nd Saturday Volunteer Project: June 10, 2017 from 9:00am to Noon
Meet at the mausoleum – Student certificates are available
Bring canned or boxed food to share with our neighborhood food closet.

Volunteers will walk the 42 acre cemetery and collect American Flags from Veteran gravesites to be stored for next year. While walking, volunteers will also collect trash and pile branches.

We also have 2 areas that need weeds pulled. The 10' x 100' Baby Garden and half of the Washington Street fence line. This is a great activity for a church, work, or social group.
