

arts & production administrator – summer position
haliburton

job description

We are looking for a unique person to fill a unique role with our youth arts non-profit organization as our summer Arts & Production Administrator in Wawa. If you are an individual who is as creative as you are organized we would love to chat about spending an exciting summer with us! You would be involved in providing assistance, support and leadership in the areas of administration, organization, scheduling, marketing, programming and more. We offer youth arts programs, summer camps, a youth arts performance tour, and this season we are producing a documentary film with our own students. You would be involved in all of our programs and projects, with your primary focus on administration and production, but also providing support where needed. Our season is filled with arts events, activities, travel, nature, recreation, with lots of work with children and youth and the arts! If you are interested in a career in the arts/recreation/culture in the areas of management, administration and/or leadership, this is the right opportunity for you! Must be ages 15-29 for summer job grant requirements, and preference given to students who have completed high school and are in or are entering a related post-secondary program of study.

Can start as early as May 2021 or June 2021, completed end of August 2021.

Full time, flexible hours.

Possibility of job extending in fall of 2021.

compensation:

Starting at $14.25/hour+, based on experience.

application:

Please apply with resume and a brief written description or portfolio or video of your experiences and skills.
