

GLOBEFORM ANALYSIS - MORENO

MORENO has enjoyed a lucrative season, winning the Whitney Handicap (G1) and running second both in the Suburban Handicap (G2) and Woodward Stakes (G1). After having run second, beaten 3 lengths by Zivo, in the 10-furlong Suburban at Belmont, Moreno dropped down to 9 furlongs in the Whitney at Saratoga, where he led every step of the way and kept on well at the finish to beat Itsmuluckyday by just over a length. Itsmuluckyday turned the tables on him when these two filled the exacta also in the Woodward, another top notch race over nine panels. Moreno went down by half a length. Moreno carried 2lb more than Itsmuluckyday in the Woodward, while in the Whitney he was receiving 2lb from his arch rival. The four-year-old son of BC Classic winner Ghostzapper came back to Belmont, and contested the Jockey Club Gold Cup (G1) in September. Ten furlongs is a bit too far for him, but he ran a sound enough race to pass the post in fourth, 7 lengths behind Tonalist. Moreno had interfered with Wicked Strong, who almost went down and unshipped his rider at the halfway stage, and was therefore disqualified and placed last by the stewards.

His running style is all about speed, and that's okay at Santa Anita, but how far can he carry it over this distance?

Globeform 120

Home Premier Service Breeders' Cup info B Cup Subscribers Section Winter 2014/15 Web Store Racecourses More >

VALUE BETS

250-1, 16-1, 10-1, 6-1, 5-1...

Bookmakers have priced up Breeders' Cup races, and a handful of horses stick out as superb value bets.

A couple of them are tasty at 10-1 and 16-1, while a very strong trio, all overpriced, offer a massive 250-1 treble. This is the time to start

GLOBEFORM'S BREEDERS' CUP SPECIAL

FULL REFUNDS IF 2 FAVORITES WIN

BREEDERS' CUP SECTION - NOW OPEN!

- EXCLUSIVE GRADE ONE SERVICE
- Daily updates
- Email alerts
- Key contenders in focus
- Europeans in focus
- Globeform Ratings, also for juvenile races
- Best early value bets
- Horses to avoid, and why
- " These will pay more at Santa Anita "
- Race by race previews, Oct 31 & Nov 1
- Selections & Betting plans, US and Euro bets, Exotics, P3 & P4 plans etc.
- Post race Globeform ratings after the meeting. How good were the winners?

BREEDERS' CUP REFUND OFFER ENDS OCTOBER 26

www.globeform.info